THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freemen, and Freeholders of the County of the City of Waterford, in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, duly convened by the Sheriffs of said City, seize this awful Period, when your Majesty's Dominions are threatened to be invaded by a fierce and haughty Foe, to express our unfeigned and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and to that Constitution under which we have the Happiness to live, and for the Support and Protection of which we are ready to die.

Sensible of the many Blessings we have long enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and paternal Reign, we feel it our bounden Duty to offer our personal Service and Property to defend and maintain that Constitution we have so just Reason to boast, and on which our Rights and Liberties so essentially depend.

Reigning, as you do, in the Hearts of your true and faithful Subjects, may your Majesty's Arms be crowned with Victory; and may the Enemy by Experience find that no Force or Numbers can conquer or dismay a free and loyal People.

John Burchall and James Hackett, Sheriffs.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary
York.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and whole Inhabitants of the County and Town of Nairn, most sincerely and unalterably impressed with Sentiments of Veneration for the best of Kings, and Attachment to the British Constitution; anxious that, at a Crisis momentous as the present, these our Sentiments should keep Pace with, and be corroborated by, our Exertions, are, on that Account, thus late in approaching your Throne. We have the proud Satisfaction of communicating to your Majesty, that every Man demanded by your Government for the different Levies have cheerfully joined their Corps, and that the Remainder of this County are either in Arms as regular Volunteers, or zealously ready to take them up in Defence of our beloved Monarch, our Religion, Laws, Liberty, and every Thing dear to us on Earth.

We pray for the Protection of the Almighty God to your Majesty and the British Empire.

Signed at the Desire of the Meeting, in their Name, at Nairn, the First of September One thousand eight hundred and three.

James Brodie, Lieutenant Nairnshire.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary
York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Grand Jury of the County of Tyrone, assembled at Summer Assizes One thousand eight hundred and three, think ourselves called upon at this alarming Period to express our sincere, firm, and unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

Attached as we are to our most excellent and unparalleled Constitution, we view with no less Wonder than Indignation the tumultuous and savage Insurrection which so lately disgraced the Capital of this Kingdom, for the Purpose of its Subversion, an Insurrection excited and fomented by an Enemy the most desperate and determined that ever yet appeared for the Destruction of the Liberties and Happiness of Mankind.

We have now before our Eyes the abject and disgraceful Slavery to which the invidious Arts, as much as the Arms of the French Republic, have reduced many of the Nations of Europe; and we stand determined, if needful, at the Expence of our Lives and Fortunes, to maintain our most glorious Constitution, and such as we have received it; to preserve and transmit the same to our Posterity under the Government, we trust for ever, of your Majesty's illustrious House.

John Stewart, Foreman.

York.]

The humble Address of the Governor, High-Sheriff, and Grand Jury of the County of Waterford, assembled at Summer Assizes One thousand eight hundred and three.

May it please your Majesty,

WHEN we contemplate the great and solid Advantages that every Part of the United Kingdom has obtained during your Majesty's auspicious Reign, and when we look to the Situation in which the other Kingdoms of Europe are now placed in, we think it necessary to come forward on the present Occasion, and publicly avow our Determination to exert all our Strength, and to call forth all the Energies of this County, in order to support the just and necessary War in which your Majesty is now engaged for the Defence of your Dominions, for the Preservation of our Rights and Liberties, and for the Maintenance of social Order, against the Usurpation of a Tyrant, whose avowed Object is the Destruction of our happy Constitution.

We are fully convinced that though the Danger with which your Majesty's United Kingdom is threatened may be thought great, yet that its Resources are superior to it; and notwithstanding the Attempts which have lately been made to disturb the Peace and Tranquillity of this Country, and which produced the Death of one of the ablest and best of Men, yet when we consider that, in Times as critical as the present, the loyal Men of this Kingdom stood forward in its Defence, we feel a conscious Pride in thus publicly avowing that we are not dismayed in consequence of the late hostile Attempts, but that, on the contrary, as it has increased our Vigilance, so it has considerably added to our Security.

Waterford, Governor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cavan, feel it our sacred Duty at this awful and important Crisis, to approach your Majesty's Throne, and renew the solemn Pledge of our Loyalty and unshaken Attachment to your Royal Person, and our ardent Devotion to the Constitution, a Pledge, which, in all the late Calamities of this Country, was never forfeited by the County of Cavan. With the deepest Concern we have heard that a rebellious Inturrection, marked by Acts of peculiar Barbarity, has again disgraced the Character of any Part of this Kingdom, but we rely on the Vigilance and decisive Energy of your Majesty's Government, and the zealous Assistance of every loyal Subject effectually to crush and dissolve the traitorous Conspiracy. At the same Time we feel ourselves impelled by every Motive of public and private Interest to express our Horror and Indignation, that any, even of the lower Class of our Fellow Subjects, should be found so lost to the Duty they owe to their God, to their Sovereign, and to their Country, as to become the unnatural Instruments of a foreign Enemy, or Perpetrators of the wicked Suggestions of those domestic Traitors, who, in return for the Clemency they have experienced from their injured Country, are endeavouring again to plunge it into all the Horrors of a Civil War.

We sincerely deplore the Necessity that has compelled your Majesty again to appeal to Arms to maintain the Honor and Safety of the Empire. We know the Value of Peace, but we feel what we have to preserve, and what we have to expect from a treacherous and rapacious Enemy; and we do in the most solemn Manner assure your Majesty, that all his Menaces and Preparations have had no other Effect on our Minds, than to confirm our unqualified Determination, cheerfully to devote our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majesty's Person and Government, and we look forward with Confidence, that, under Divine Providence, the united Exertions of a brave and free People, rallying round their beloved Sovereign, will preserve inviolate the Glory of his Crown and the Independence of the Country.

Vouchsafe to accept the Prayers of us your faithful Subjects, that your Majesty may long reign over a free and grateful People.

Thos. Barrow, High Sheriff of the County of Cavan.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Forke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the States of your Majesty's Island of Jersey.

SIR,

THE States of your Majesty's Island of Jersey, acknowledging with Gratitude, which no Time or Circumstance can obliterate from their Minds, the inestimable Blessings they possess under your mild and truly paternal Sway, beg Leave, at this momentous Crisis, to renew their assurances of the most devoted Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family, and Government.

The Historical Page of this little Island, though not dignified with many of those memorable Events which distinguish more extensive Countries, is still, they are proud to say, adorned with not a few Instances of unshaken Loyalty to the Monarchs of England, in the most perilous and the worst of Times; this Virtue they will ever cherish as the most precious Inheritance they have received from their gallant Forefathers, to transmit it pure and unshaken to their Posterity, is the Object of their most anxious Solicitude, and of their highest Ambition.

With these Sentiments and Impressions they deem it their essential and sacred Duty, at a Period when they are threatened with an Invasion by a merciless and ferocious Enemy, to use every Effort, to strain every Nerve in Defence of their King and Country, and for the Preservation of their Rights, their Religion, and their Liberties.

If ought could add to the reverential Affection which your Subjects of this Island have ever professed and felt for a beloved Sovereign, it would be the Comparison so forcibly obtruded on their Notice, between the Miseries of France, under an usurped, cruel, and despotic Government, and the Ease, Prosperity, and Happiness of Britain and its Dependencies, under your Majesty's benignant Care and Protection. If ought could increase the Antipathy to French Dominions entertained by the People of this Island through many an Age, it would be the late atrocious Deeds of Devastation and Havoc which have disseminated Anguish and Dismay through every Country, where French Arms and French Rapacity have penetrated.

To avert these Evils by repelling the perfidious Foe, glorious were the Sacrifice of Life. In such a Cause, your faithful Subjects of Jersey will unite with Hand and Heart, happy if they can prove to your Majesty, by the Ardour of their Zeal, and the Vigour of their Exertions, that they have not degenerated from the Valour and Loyalty of their Ancestors, that they are not unworthy of the Favours so liberally heaped upon them by your gracious Self, and by your illustrious Progenitors.

By Order of the States,

John De Veuille, Greff.

Jersey, 20th August 1803.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, Deemsters, and Keys of your Majesty's Island of Man, in Tynwald assembled.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, Deemsters, and Keys of your Majesty's Island of Man, in Tynwald assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our warmest Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment to your Royal Person, Family, and Government.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty that your faithful Subjects in this Isle feel the utmost Gratitude for the paternal Care which your Majesty has upon all Occasions been graciously pleased to extend to them.

We beg Leave to offer our most earnest Prayers to the King of Kings for the Continuance of his gracious Protection to your Majesty, your Majesty's illustrious House, and extensive Dominions.

We have the utmost Confidence that the Unanimity and determined Exertions of your Majesty's loyal and affectionate Subjects will oppose an impenetrable Bulwark to the Designs of our inveterate Enemies, and transmit to Posterity, inviolate, the Constitution in Church and State, which it is our Glory and Happiness to enjoy.

*[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary
Torke.]*

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop of Oxford, the Dean and Chapter of Christ Church, the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Oxford, think it our Duty, at this awful Crisis, to approach your Majesty's Throne, in common with our Fellow-Subjects, in order to renew our solemn Declarations of firm and undaken Attachment, and of faithful Allegiance to your Majesty's Person and Government.

The present Danger to ourselves, and what has recently passed among other Nations of Europe, bind us by a still stronger Tie, and with double Affection, to our happy Constitution in Church and State. We see and feel our own Blessings by such Comparisons, as well as the Degradation into which we should sink if we should suffer them to be wrested from us by an Enemy of insatiable Ambition, unprincipled Malice, and implacable Enmity towards us.

Precluded by our Profession from bearing Arms in our own Persons, we will use our most strenuous and incessant Endeavours to animate others to the common Defence, to assist them in the Means of providing for it, to forward the Measures of Government calculated for that Purpose, to impress upon the Minds of those entrusted to our Care the Greatness of the Danger to which all, even the meanest, are exposed, and the Value of the Prize, for which we contend, being no other than the free Enjoyment of every Advantage and Comfort of civil and domestic Life, of our very Virtue and our Religion.

Thus acting, we trust that your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects will not be found wanting in the great Trial to which they are now called, and we will rely on Providence to second their Endeavours; and hope that the Security of your Majesty and the Realm will ultimately be granted to the Exertions of our People, and the Prayers of our Church.

*[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary
Torke.]*

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, the Archdeacons, and the parochial Clergy of the Diocese of Exeter, beg Leave, at this momentous Crisis, humbly to approach your Throne to express our deep Abhorrence of those atrocious Designs of a restless and unprincipled Ambition, which threatens to overwhelm in one common Ruin our Properties, our Liberties, our Laws, and our Religion, whatever we enjoy of public Blessing and of private Consolation.

Impressed with an awful Sense of the impending Danger, we feel it incumbent upon us to assure your Majesty of our most strenuous Exertions to enforce upon the Minds of those of our Fellow-Subjects, who are committed to our Charge, the Importance and the Necessity of giving the most prompt and vigorous Execution to such Measures for frustrating the Machinations of the Enemy, as your Majesty in your Wisdom shall direct.

As Ministers of the Gospel of Peace we profess not to buckle on our Armour, and to set ourselves in Array of Battle: We know that we may be more beneficially employed in instructing and awakening others; in teaching them to submit with Cheerfulness to whatever Sacrifices, to encounter with Fortitude whatever Dangers, the public Safety may demand. Satisfied that the true Spirit of our Religion is in no Respect inconsistent with the most fervent Display of genuine Patriotism, we feel that we cannot more honorably and more conscientiously discharge our Duties than by animating our Countrymen to the most vigorous Exertions; and we most humbly offer up our Supplications to the Sovereign Disposer of all human Events, that He will vouchsafe to those Exertions the Blessings of his Almighty Favour: May He continue to keep under His especial Protection the sacred Person of your Majesty, endeared to your Subjects by the Exercise of every Virtue, and by a constant Attention to all their Interests both civil and religious: May He instruct us so to profit by the calamitous Fate with which we have seen the surrounding Nations overwhelmed, as justly to appreciate our own Happiness: And may He inspire such Wisdom into our Councils, such Energy into our Arms, that, undimmed by the Terror with which we are assailed, we may be enabled to hold forth to an astonished World the animating Example of what may be effected by a free and an united, a loyal, and a Christian People in the Defence of their Country, their Religion, and their King.

John Exeter.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary
Tolke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

ACTUATED, not less by the Loyalty and Affection which we have ever entertained for your Royal House, than by the Love we bear our Country, and a grateful Sense of the Blessings, which we have long enjoyed under our inextinguishable Constitution, we, the Bishop, the Dean, Canons, Prebendaries of the Cathedral Church, the Chancellor, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Salisbury, think it incumbent on us, not only to renew to your Majesty the strongest Assurances of our inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person, but the most solemn Pledges of our unalterable Determination, zealously to exert every Energy, and cheerfully to submit to every Sacrifice which the Exigencies of this most awful Crisis may demand.

Relying, under the Protection of Divine Providence, on the impregnable Bulwark of national Unanimity, we view the gigantic Efforts of our implacable Enemy, if not without Solicitude, at least without Dismay. And we shall not cease to offer our daily and most fervent Prayers to the Great Disposer of all Events, that the People of this Land, may, in every Trial of Difficulty and Danger, be animated, under his Divine Influence, with that steady Patriotism, that unshaken Resolution, and that undaunted, manly, and generous Courage which Religion can alone inspire, earnestly beseeching Him so to bless all our Endeavours to maintain our Laws, Liberties, and Religion, that we, as faithful Guardians of a sacred Trust delivered down to us from our illustrious Ancestors, may be enabled to transmit them unimpaired to our latest Posterity.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary
Tolke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Aberdeen.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Aberdeen, in Presbytery assembled, beg Leave at this momentous Crisis, to approach your Throne, with the most sincere and energetic Sentiments of Affection, Loyalty, and Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

We consider the Conduct of the present Ruler of the French Nation, after Peace had been re-ferred through your Majesty's parental Care for your

People, as one continued Series of Aggression and Insult, which rendered War just and necessary.

Though we regard without Alarm, the insolent Threats of the Enemy, yet from his exasperated Efforts and unceasing Preparations, we perceive our Laws, our Religion, our Liberties, and every Thing dear to us as Men, as Britons, and as Christians, to be in Danger.

Actuated by these Sentiments, we have thought it our Duty to impress on the Minds of our People, a due Sense of the Danger with which they are threatened, to animate them to contribute their Part to every species of Military Force deemed expedient by your Majesty's Government, and to bear with Cheerfulness, the necessary Privations, to place their Confidence in the Lord Hosts, and to practise those Virtues which our holy Religion inculcates, and which are the grand Sources of national Safety, Prosperity, and Glory.

We have accordingly the Satisfaction to assure your Majesty, that all the different Classes of our People, have, from Affection to their beloved Sovereign, and in Defence of their Country, come forward with Alacrity and Spirit to the several Duties required, and bear with Cheerfulness the Burdens necessary for the great Cause in which we are engaged.

We recollect with Gratitude, the Interpositions of Heaven in former Periods, in Behalf of this favoured Land; we rely with Confidence on the God of our Fathers for Protection in the present Time of Danger, and put up our humble and earnest Supplications, that the Lord of Hosts may go forth with our Fleets and Armies, and give them Victory in the Day of Battle, may restrain the Wrath and Ambition of the Enemy, establish your Majesty's Throne, preserve our happy Constitution, and secure our holy Religion to the latest Generations. These are the fervent Prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Aberdeen.

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment of the Presbytery at Aberdeen, this Twenty-fifth Day of August, One thousand eight hundred and three, by
W. L. Brown, Moderator.

Tolke.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal, and affectionate Subjects, the Provincial Synod of Caithness and Sutherland, being met and constituted at Thurso, this Eighteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three Years, reflecting on the Biddings, civil and religious, we, with our Fellow-Subjects, enjoy under your Majesty's mild Government and our envied Constitution, humbly beg Leave to express our Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government; and to assure your Majesty, that we will, by our Influence with the People committed by Providence to our Charge in spiritual Matters, and by every Exertion in our Power, contribute to support and defend your Majesty, our Religion, our Laws, and our Liberties, and repel any Enemy whatever who may attempt any Thing hostile to our Nation: And our Prayer to God is, that your Majesty may long live and reign over a free, a happy, a loyal, independent, and united People, and transmit our Laws and our Liberties inviolated to Posterity; and that your Majesty, after resigning a Crown on Earth, may receive one in Heaven.

In Name, Presence, and by Appointment of the Synod. Extracted from the Synod Records, by

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS under the present Circumstances, much Danger may arise to the public Tranquillity from Alien Enemies resorting to, and residing in Great Britain: And whereas by an Act passed in the Forty third Year of Our Reign, intituled "An Act to repeal an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament for establishing Regulations respecting Aliens arriving in this Kingdom, or resident therein; and for establishing, until Three Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, Regulations respecting Aliens arriving in this Kingdom, or resident therein, in certain Cases," due Provision has been made for inflicting Penalties on all such Aliens as shall disobey any Proclamation issued by Us, directing that such Aliens shall depart the United Kingdom: Now We, being desirous of carrying into Execution the Intent and Meaning of the said Act, and thereby providing for the general Safety of the Realm, do, by this Our Proclamation, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, order and direct, That all Aliens being Subjects of the French Republic, or of any Place belonging to, or under the Dominion of the Government of the French Republic, or of any Country or Territory at War with Us, who shall have arrived in Great Britain since the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and one, and on or before this Day the Thirty-first of August (other than such Aliens as are hereinafter excepted), shall depart Great Britain in Manner hereinafter mentioned; that is to say,

All such Aliens residing within the City and Liberties of Westminster, or elsewhere within the Bills of Mortality, or within the Parishes of Saint Mary-le-Bone, Paddington, Pancras, or Saint Luke at Chelsea, on or before the Fifteenth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and three.

And all such Aliens residing in other Parts of Great Britain (except as hereinafter excepted) shall depart Great Britain on or before the Twentieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and three.

And We do further declare and make known, that every such Alien who shall knowingly and willfully refuse or neglect to pay due Obedience to this Our Royal Proclamation, and shall be found in Great Britain contrary to such Proclamation, will be liable to be arrested and committed to the Common Gaol of the County or Place where he or she shall be so arrested, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize until he or she shall be taken in Charge, for the Purpose of being sent out of Great Britain; and if any such Alien sent out of Great Britain in pursuance of this Our Proclamation shall, without Licence for that Purpose by One of Our Principal Secretaries of State, return into any Part of the United Kingdom, such Alien being duly convicted thereof will be liable to be transported for Life according to the Provisions of the said Act.

And in order the better to enable such Aliens to comply with this Our Proclamation and the said Act, We have caused to be provided Ships and Vessels at Gravesend, for conveying such Aliens to some Port or Ports on the Continent of Europe: And all such Aliens as are desirous to avail themselves of this Accommodation are directed to repair to Gravesend on or before the Fourteenth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and three: And all such Aliens repairing to Gravesend, and having obtained their Passports conformably to the said Act, by applying at the Alien Office in Crown Court, Westminster, shall be permitted to embark, and shall be conveyed on board the said Ships to be furnished by Us, free of Expence, to some Port or Ports on the Continent of Europe.

And all such Aliens as shall decline availing themselves of this Accommodation for carrying them out of Great Britain, free of Expence, are hereby required nevertheless to repair to the Port of London, and to some other Port, and there to embark, having their Passports conformably to the said Act, to be obtained on Application to the Alien Office, as aforesaid, in order to depart on or before the said Fifteenth or Twentieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and three respectively, as the Case may require, under the Penalties hereinbefore mentioned.

Provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to repeal any Part of Our Proclamation of the Twelfth of this instant August, requiring the Aliens therein mentioned to reside within the Limits therein described, except in Cases where any Aliens as aforesaid, shall be bona fide proceeding on their Journey to the Port of London and to Graveland, in order to embark and depart thereat from Great Britain.

Provided always, that this Our Proclamation shall not extend to any Foreign Ambassador, or other public Minister duly authorized, or the Servants actually attending upon such Ambassador or public Minister, or any domestic Servant of any of Our natural born Subjects, or of any Subject who has been made Denizen or naturalized: such Servant being actually and bona fide employed in the Service of their respective Masters; nor to any such Alien as shall, by virtue of a Licence under the Hand and Seal of One of Our Principal Secretaries of State, or of such Person or Persons as shall be appointed for that Purpose, be authorized to dwell and reside in some Part of Great Britain.

We do hereby charge and command that all Aliens, to whom this relates, do pay due Obedience to the same, and that all Justices of the Peace, Mayors, and other Magistrates, and all Constables and other Peace Officers, do respectively use their utmost Diligence to enforce the same.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this Thirtieth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three, and in the Forty-third Year of Our Reign.

Copy of a Letter from Admiral Sir John Colpoys, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Plymouth, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated the 11th Instant.

SIR,

I TRANSMIT you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter I have received from Captain Burke, of His Majesty's Sloop 'Sea Gull', giving an Account of his having recaptured the Lord Nelson East Indiaman, after an Action which seems to have done him, his Officers, and Crew much Credit.

I am, &c.

JOHN COLPOYS.

His Majesty's Sloop Sea Gull, Plymouth-Sound, September 11, 1833.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that, after having seen the Convoy safe into Cork, on my Return I saw, at One P. M. on the 25th Instant, in Lat. 46 Deg. N. Long. 12 Deg. a large Sail, and, after a Chase of Five Hours, brought her to Action, which lasted until Daylight next Morning, when I found the Masts and Rigging so much cut up, having the larboard, fore, and main Rigging gone, lower and spring Stays, all the running Rigging and Sails, the fore Yard shot away in the Slings, with Two Shot between Wind and Water, that I was obliged to haul off to secure the Masts, and replace the Rigging, still keeping Sight of the Enemy, determined, when a little secured, to renew the Action, which having done, and on the Point of again attacking her, at half-past Eight A. M. the Squadron under Sir Edward Pellew bore in Sight, on the advanced Ship of which drawing up the struck, and proved to be the Lord Nelson East India Ship, captured Thirteen Days before by the Bellone Privateer, of Thirty-six Guns and three Hundred and Twenty Men, by boarding.

It is with sincere Regret I have to add, that I have on the Occasion lost Two valuable Seamen killed, Seven Seamen and a Marine wounded; among the latter, I am sorry to say, is Lieutenant William Davis, (Senior Lieutenant,) to whose cool and steady Conduct I am much indebted, as well as that of Lieutenant Weatherstone and Mr. Ellis, the Master; indeed I cannot do sufficient Justice to the Merits of the Whole of the Officers and Ship's Company for their cool and determined Courage.

Enclosed is a List of the Killed and Wounded.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

HENRY BURKE.St. James's, September 7, 1803.

THE following Address having been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Bishop, and Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Ely, together with the Rest of the Clergy of the Diocese of Ely, request Permission humbly to offer to your Majesty our most sincere Expressions of affectionate Zeal for your sacred Person and gracious Government at this awful Crisis, when they are each of them insulted and assailed by malevolent and daring Hostilities.

Impressed with the Urgency of that Danger, which threatens to eradicate every pious and virtuous Principle from the human Mind, to defeat each political Arrangement which tends to promote the Order and Happiness of Society, and which seems particularly directed to the Destruction of our invaluable Constitution both in Church and State, we feel ourselves called upon, in common with our Fellow-Subjects, to avow our Resolution to defend them from so atrociously wicked a Conspiracy, and to offer to our Sovereign and our Country that Tribute of Allegiance and Exertion which is best adapted to our Description and holy Function.

We had lately indulged a fond Hope, that, after the heavy Pressure of a wasteful and sanguinary War, we might have enjoyed the Blessing of your Majesty's Protection without Annoyance to your Person, or Disturbance to your Government. But since it has pleased the great Disposer of all Events that we should again experience the Evil of unprovoked Insult, and the daring Violation of Right and Truth from our insatiate Foes, we esteem it as well our Interest as our Duty to unite Heart and Hand to repel their Insults, and to secure our Privileges and Properties. May the Almighty grant his Blessing to such patriotic Efforts; and may He long continue us under your Majesty's parental Care.

James Ely.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary
Törke.]

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Citizens, and Freeholders of the City and County of Londonderry, convened this Thirty-first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three, in the Town-Hall of this City, by public Notice from the High Sheriffs of this City and County, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty, and, with Sentiments of unfeigned Loyalty, to assure your Majesty of our Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, and to the Constitution of the United Empire: And that in Defence of Objects so dear, your Majesty may rely with the utmost Confidence on our most zealous Exertions.

While we view with just Indignation the Aggressions and Menaces of an insidious Foe, we behold with Pride the ardent Loyalty of the Country so conspicuously manifested, and have the firmest Reliance on the Vigilance and Energy of your Majesty's Government, convinced that their Wisdom will so direct that Spirit of zealous Attachment to your Majesty and the Constitution, as to give Efficacy to its Exertions, and thereby enable your Majesty to bring the present arduous Contest to a glorious and happy Conclusion.

Thos. Paterson and W. D. Lecky, High-Sheriffs of the City and County of Londonderry.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Yorke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, Justices of Peace, and Lieutenantcy of the County of Bute, take the Opportunity of being convened in a Court of Lieutenantcy, holden at Rothesay, the Eighth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and three, for carrying into Execution the late Acts of Parliament for Defence and Security of the Kingdom, humbly to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the most dutiful and loyal Affection for your Majesty's sacred Person, and patriotic Attachment to our Country; and to express to your Majesty our determined Readiness to come forward at all Times with our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of Objects so justly, and so very dear to us, more especially at this awful Crisis, when all are threatened by a powerful and enraged Enemy.

Signed in our Name and Presence, and by our Appointment, by

Arch. Moore, Vice-Lieutenant.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Yorke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Clare, approach your Majesty with Sentiments of Duty, Loyalty, and Affection to your Royal Person and Family, conscious of the numerous Blessings we enjoy under your mild and beneficent Government.

At the same Time that we express our Horror and Detestation at the late daring Rebellion which has disgraced a Part of this Kingdom; we beg to assure your Majesty that you reign in the Hearts of a great Majority of the People of Ireland, who are ready and willing to shed their Blood in Defence of their glorious and unparalleled Constitution, against either the domestic Traitor who would plunge his native Land in Anarchy and Blood, or the foreign Tyrant who would consign this fair and improving Country to the Plunder and Devastation of a ferocious and unprincipled Enemy.

Christopher Lyfaght, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Yorke.]

To the KING's Most Sacred Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentry, Clergy, Merchants, and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Rochdale, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, deeply impressed with the strongest Sentiments of Loyalty and Fidelity to your Majesty, take the Liberty of approaching your Royal Throne with a public Declaration of our invariable Attachment to your sacred Person and Government.

Fully sensible of the many Advantages we enjoyed under the Blessing of Peace, we view with Horror and Detestation the daring Attempts of the public Disturber of Mackinn, to again renew the Miseries of War, and reduce under his Tyranny this happy Isle, the last Bulwark of real Liberty.

Truly rejoicing that all Internal Animosities and Dissensions amongst us are buried in Oblivion, and proud of the Name of Britons, we humbly presume to lay before your Majesty our determined Resolution to make every Exertion in our Power to defend our Constitution, our Country, and our Religion; and to prove to the Rest of the World, that there is one Nation that will not tamely submit to the haughty Dictates of an impious Usurper.

To your Majesty's paternal Care and Solitude for the Welfare of your People, and to the wise, firm, and decisive Conduct of your Majesty's Councils, we ascribe the enviable State of unparalleled Prosperity to which the Commerce of your Majesty's Dominions has been carried; and we humbly beg Leave to state to your Majesty our full Persuasion that only by Energy, Firmness, and Decision in your Majesty's Measures our Country can be united, our Commerce protected and extended, and our Enemies be made to shrink back ashamed of their Temerity.

We do most sincerely pray the Almighty Disposer of all Events to take your Majesty and your Dominions under his Divine Protection, and to make the threatened Insults of our audacious Foe turn to his own Destruction.

Signed on Behalf of a Meeting of the Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Rochdale, Thos. Drake, D. D. Chairman.

[Presented by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Foster.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Borough of Bolton, in the County of Lincoln.

May it please your Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the ancient Borough of Bolton, in Common-Hall assembled, beg Leave at this important Juncture, to offer to your Majesty our most humble and earnest Assurance of continued and cordial Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We contemplate without Dimmy, and we are ready to oppose with all the Means in our Power, the meditated Invasion and Violence of a haughty Foe, who dreams of reducing Englishmen under his Tyranny, because he has been permitted thus to deal with Frenchmen. But, different as is our Character, so (we trust) will be our Fate.

We trust, that his Fury will be in vain directed against us, that, by the Blessing of Almighty God, upon your Majesty's wise and vigorous Councils, upon the Valour (hitherto irresistible,) of your Fleets and Armies, and upon the universally combined Efforts of your faithful Subjects, the Dangers which now threaten us will be averted, the Malice of our Adversaries will be signally chastised; and they and all the World will be convinced, that Destruction awaits every one who shall attempt to set a hostile Foot upon any of the Shores of your Majesty's United Kingdoms.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said Borough, the Eleventh Day of August, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Transmitted by William Alexander Mallocks, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Borough, and presented by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Foster.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, Electors and Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Penryn, in the County of Cornwall, think it incumbent on us at this momentous Crisis, when our happy and unrivalled Constitution is threatened with Destruction by a daring, cruel, and licentious Usurper, to lay forward and declare our unshaken Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, and that we are determined, in common with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects, to defend with the last Drop of our Blood that Constitution under which we enjoy so many Blessings, should the presumptuous Threats of Invasion be attempted by an inveterate and implacable Foe to all Religion and social Order. We pledge ourselves to your Majesty to exert our utmost Endeavours to defeat his unbounded Ambition, and to maintain with Cheerfulness the Religion, Laws, and Liberties of our Country: We most anxiously hope that your Majesty may long reign over a free and united People.

Penryn, September 8, 1803.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of Dock, and Parish of Stoke Damerel, in the County of Devon.

May it please your Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Dock, and Parish of Stoke Damerel, beg to approach your Throne, to express our unfeigned Attachment and Allegiance to your Majesty's Person and Government at the present important Crisis of national Affairs.

It is with the deepest Abhorrence and Indignation that we have observed the dangerous Spirit of Aggrandizement which so strongly marks the Conduct of the French Republic, and we feel most sensibly for the subjugated State of a great Part of Europe, nor are we inclined to lose Sight of the Danger that threatens our own Empire. But a free People can never be dismayed, however daring the Projects, or desperate the Machinations to accomplish their Ruin. Strongly impressed with this noble Sentiment, we shall meet, with the usual Firmness of Britons, the Exigencies of the Times, and should deem ourselves unworthy of the high and dignified Rank we hold in the Scale of Nations, did we decline the most active and spirited Exertions in the Defence of our Country, and to shew a Readiness to sacrifice our Lives for the Preservation of your Majesty's august Person and Family, and in support of those Laws which have been so long secured to us in our glorious Constitution. Such, Sir, are the Assurances we beg Leave to lay at the Foot of your Majesty's Throne, cherishing at the same Time, the pleasing Reflection that the same Spirit animates the whole Kingdom; and we trust that Unanimity, in so noble a Cause, will obtain for us eventually, with the Blessing of Divine Providence, a safe, permanent, and honorable Peace.

[Presented by Sir John St. Aubyn, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop of Hereford the Dean and Chapter, the Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Hereford.

SIR,

AT a Period so full of Danger to every Thing most dear to us, we beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our heartfelt Expressions of personal and constitutional Regard. We have heard, not with Fear, but with just Repentment, of the Menaces thrown out by an Enemy against your Majesty and your Subjects. We have long enjoyed, Sir, under your just Reign, too many Blessings to be inensible of them; Blessings which will ever impel us to protect the Altars of our Faith, and the envied Constitution of these Realms. May Divine Providence scatter the Cloud which has overspread so great a Part of Europe before it bursts on us! May your Majesty's Life may be long extended for the common Benefit of the World. May Princes, Sir, learn from you how to reign, and Mankind how to live.

Hereford, 1st September 1803.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The loyal and humble Address of the Provincial Synod of Orkney.

WE, your Majesty's very dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provincial Synod of Orkney, beg Leave to lay before the Throne, at this momentous Crisis, in Union with the whole British Empire, the Expression of our cordial Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

Impressed with a just Sense of the Blessings which we and our Fathers have long enjoyed under the mild and equitable Sovereignty of your Majesty's illustrious Family; grateful to the Father of Mercies for our distinguished Privileges, civil and sacred; and humbly trusting in the Divine Providence for the Continuance of these National Blessings, we rejoice in that Unity of Sentiment, and that Ardour of Zeal, which pervade all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects for supporting and defending, with their Fortunes and their Blood, the Independence; the Laws, and the Honor of the British Empire.

While we behold, with the Indignation congenial to Freedom, the Miseries inflicted on the Nations of the Continent by the Arms and Principles of the impious Tyranny erected in France; and while we observe the desperate Efforts of that malignant Hostility against this Empire, which actuates the present Ruler of that Country, we contemplate with Joy and high Respect the moderate, the dignified, and determined Spirit of your Majesty's Councils, and that truly British Energy, which rises in Proportion to the Danger.

In our humble Sphere it shall ever be our Object to inculcate and exemplify that Submission to the Laws, and that strict Regard to religious and civil Duties, which are essential to the Peace and Welfare of Society. It shall be our unwearied Endeavour to make the People, entrusted to our pastoral Care, fully sensible of the Necessity of bearing with Patience the Burdens unavoidably imposed for our Defence.

That our glorious and envied Constitution in Church and State may remain unimpaired; that your Majesty may be long preserved as the Guardian of our Liberties and Laws; that the Lord of Hosts may go forth with your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, to shield them in Dangers, and crown them with Victory; and that a speedy and honorable Peace may be restored, is the fervent Prayer of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects, the Synod of Orkney.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by

J. In Duguid, Moderator.

Kirkwall, 24th August 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary of State.]

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Bishop, Dean, and Clergy of the Diocese of Bristol, deeply impressed with Attachment to your Royal Person, and with Gratitude for your parental Care over our Church and State, humbly presume to address your Majesty on the present awful Crisis of public Affairs:—Anxious to repeat our devoted Attachment to your Throne, and our Readiness to support your Majesty's just Rights and Privileges, we thus publicly come forward to make this Avowal, humbly conceiving that, in our peculiar Functions, we shall as materially uphold our common Cause, by impressing upon the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects the Reverence they owe to God, the Allegiance they have sworn to your Majesty, and the Respect due to the Laws, as by repelling our threatening Foe by any bodily Executions of our own; at the same Time alluding your Majesty, that we are willing and anxious to prove the Sincerity of our Attachment in any Way your Majesty may conceive more conducive to the Security of your sacred Person, and consequently to the general Happiness and Welfare of these your United Kingdoms.

G. Bristol.

[Presented by the Bishop of Bristol.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Bishop, Dean, and Chapter, and Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Cathedral Church and Diocese of Worcester, humbly beg Leave to express the Indignation we feel, with the Rest of our Fellow Subjects, at the threatened Invasion of your Majesty's Dominions.

We presume not to penetrate the Counsels of Providence. But we learn from Experience that the likeliest Way to avoid public Danger is to meet and resist it. Your Majesty's Magnanimity, and that of the Nation, hath adopted this Method. And we confidently hope that, with the Divine Blessing on your Majesty's Arms and Councils, the presumptuous Attempts of the Enemy will be defeated.

Every Member of the State hath a Part to perform in this great Contest. That which belongs to your Clergy is of the last Importance. To infuse the Principles of true Christian Religion into those committed to our Care; to fire their honest Hearts with a Glow of Loyalty and Patriotism in a Moment of Alarm and Danger; and to awaken and call forth all our own and their Energies in a Cause the most just and animating we have ever known: These, Sir, are Duties which we owe to your Majesty, to our Country, and to ourselves. And it is by a zealous Discharge of these Duties that we shall best approve ourselves faithful Subjects and good Churchmen.

R. Worsley.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary
Trotter.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, the Archdeacons, and the Clergy of the Diocese of Bath and Wells.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IN the present awful and alarming Situation of the Country, when the Invasion of your Majesty's Dominions, the Destruction of your Government, and the total Subversion of our invaluable Constitution, are avowedly intended and openly proclaimed to the World; when the Extirpation of the Laws, the Liberty, and the Religion of your faithful Subjects, with whatever else is most dear to them as Men, as Englishmen, and as Christians, is audaciously threatened by an insolent and ferocious Enemy, who has waded to an Empire through Blood; who has already subdued the greater Part of Europe to his Yoke, and terrified the Rest into a tame Acquiescence in his unjust Aggressions, which do not immediately affect themselves; in this Time of Danger, we, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, the Archdeacons, and the Clergy of the Diocese of Bath and Wells, humbly beg Leave to present ourselves before your Majesty to renew the Expression of our inviolable Attachment and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to assure your Majesty of our firm Resolution to support and carry into Effect, to the utmost of our Powers, the Measures adopted by the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils for the Defence of the Kingdom in this arduous and perilous Contest.

As Ministers of the Gospel of Peace we must ever lament and deprecate the Miseries and the Calamities of War; but in so righteous and good a Cause, we may, and we are bound to pray for the Success of your Majesty's Arms, and, at the same Time, by our Discourses to exhort and animate our Hearers to exert themselves in their several Stations; and if their personal Service has been accepted, or is required, manfully to fight under the Banners of their Sovereign against the unprincipled and savage Invaders of their Country.

In Compliance with the Recommendation of your Majesty's Lieutenant-General commanding the Western District, we have already engaged to remain in our respective Parishes, "ready to contribute to the due Execution of such Military Arrangements as shall appear to him proper for our general Preservation;" and from the Zeal and Unanimity which pervade the great Body of your Majesty's Subjects to rise up in the general Defence, we are not apprehensive that any other Duty than this will be expected or required of the Clergy. But should the Necessity of the Times call for it we do not hesitate to declare ourselves to be equally ready to hazard our Lives in the common Cause, and to go forth with the Hosts to Battle; for we know no Precept of the Gospel which forbids the Use of Arms to Christians of any Description, when there is no other Mode of defending themselves against the implacable Enemies of their King and of their God.

Richard, Bath and Wells.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary
Trotter.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

SIRE,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, the Chancellor, Commissary, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Counties of Surrey and Southampton, in the Diocese of Winchester, most humbly approach your Majesty, impatient to bear our Part in the general Expression of Zeal and Attachment to your sacred Person and Government, now so naturally and abundantly breaking forth from every Class of your Majesty's faithful Subjects.

Our Habits and Occupations have especially taught us, how surely Anarchy and Disorder become the Lot of those who crouch to the Will and Passions of lawless Usurpers and Tyrants. They have also taught us that Civil and Religious Order, Freedom, Happiness, and domestic Peace are the sure Blessing of those who know the Value of wholesome Law and Government administered under just and rightful Princes.

We cannot but apply this our Experience to your Majesty's wise and virtuous Rule, more particularly in this awful and important Crisis, when base and insidious Attempts, combined with the most cruel and unjust Aggression are employed for the Seduction and Ruin of your faithful and happy People, when all our essential interests, all that is valuable and dear to us, is at stake upon the Issue of these odious Measures.

We are persuaded, that at such a Moment, the Preservation of the British Constitution, both in Church and State, is among the most sacred Duties of our Religion, and beg to assure your Majesty, that we are not only ourselves deeply impressed with these Principles, but that most gladly and willingly, under the Blessing of God, our Lives and all that we possess, all our Endeavours, our Councils, and our Prayers shall be devoted to strengthen in the Minds of your faithful People, those Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment to their Religion, Laws, and Liberties, which they now so gloriously manifest.

We trust, that in the Success vouchsafed to your Majesty's Arms in the Preservation of your valuable Life, and in the long Continuance of your happy Reign over this yet favoured Country, all our best Hopes may be realized; and that in the Prosperity, Glory, and Safety of your United Kingdom, all the World may discern and reverence the Work of His saving Might, who is the Author of Peace, the Lover of Concord, and whose Service is perfect Freedom.

[Presented by the Bishop of Winchester.]

WE, the Bishop, Precentor, and Chapter, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of St. David's, impressed with a Conviction that, under the Protection of our Laws, Liberty in this Country, a purer Religion, more civil Liberty, and all the Advantages of civil Life in a more perfect State than can be found in any other Portion of the World—presume to approach your Majesty, the Guardian of all our Rights, with the Offer of our best Services at this awful Crisis, when we are threatened with the Loss of every Thing that is most valuable to us as Men, as Englishmen, and Christians. With Hearts full of Gratitude for the Blessings we enjoy, we wish to adore your Majesty, that in common with our Concomitance of every Description, we partake of that Zeal for the Safety and Honor of our Country, which is ready to exert its best Faculties and Endeavours in her Service. We look with Confidence to the Support of that gracious Providence, which has hitherto so eminently upheld us, and trust that the same protecting Goodness will continue to watch over your Majesty's Dominions, will crown with Success the Efforts of your faithful People, and bless your paternal Solicitude for their Welfare.

[Presented by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Tyrone.]

The humble Address of the Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Lichfield, the Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Lichfield and Coventry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Lichfield, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Lichfield and Coventry, beg Leave to approach your Majesty at this awful Period, and to join with the Rest of your People in expressing those Sentiments of Affection and Duty to your Majesty, and of Attachment to our excellent Constitution in Church and State, which are now so universally and happily apparent throughout the whole Nation. We are fully sensible of the Danger to which we are exposed from the daring and enterprising Spirit of our Enemy, rendered more formidable to us by the Subjugation of so many free and independent States, and their consequent Subserviency to the Purposes of the French Empire. We are sensible too that the Preservation of our Religion, our Laws and Liberties, depends at this Time upon our best and immediate Exertions, under the Protection of that Almighty Providence which has heretofore delivered us from haughty and determined Foes, and, we trust, will yet deliver us. But such Exertions would be of little Avail were they not to be directed by an entire Union of zealous Sentiment among your People, and this Union of Sentiment is at present produced from the worthiest Considerations,—Veneration for your Majesty's exalted Character and Government, and an ardent Desire to transmit all our Blessings to our Posterity. Trust, therefore, who are desirous of Prosperity, and depend only for their Subsistence upon repeated Gains, from repeated daily Employment, feel themselves as much interested in this Cause as the richest of your Majesty's Subjects. They truly and wisely consider that there are other Advantages to be annihilated by the Subversion of the existing Government as well as Property; Advantages which interest all, and which ought to be dearer to us than Property, or even than Life itself; that Religion and Morality, under this Reflection, display themselves in the foremost Rank, as materially countenanced and materially supported by it; and that they have always in their Train Order and Decency, and whatsoever is contributive to social Happiness. May British Subjects ever confess and testify the Connection which subsists between civil and political Duties, and those of Religion and Morality; and also declare, as they do at present, with one Mind, one Heart, and one Voice, that the Establishment of regal Authority is a first and essential Principle to the Formation of all wise and stable Systems of Government.

J. Lichfield and Coventry.

A PROCLAMATION, For a General FAST.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God that He will graciously bless our Arms both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, That a public Day of Fasting and Humiliation be observed throughout those Parts of Our United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Wednesday the Nineteenth Day of October next, that so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins, and in the most devout and solemn Manner send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgments which Our manifold Provocations have most justly deserved; and for imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms for the Restoration of Peace and Prosperity to Us and Our Dominions: And We do strictly charge and command, that the said public Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in England and Ireland, as they tender the Favour of Almighty

God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty: And, for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishop, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England and Ireland, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches, Chapels, and Places of public Worship, and to take Care that the same be timely dispersed throughout their respective Dioceses.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the Fourteenth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and three, and in the Forty-third Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

Crown-Office, September 17, 1803.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Burghs of Haddington, &c.
The Honorable Thomas Maitland.

Admiralty-Office, September 17, 1803.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Sir John Thomas Duckworth, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated at Port Royal, the 14th of July 1803.

SIR,

SINCE my Letters, with the various Details of Service, by the Queen Charlotte Packet, His Majesty's Ship Cumberland arrived from cruising off St. Domingo with the French Frigate Creole, taken by the Squadron under Captain Bayntun, for the Particulars of which Transaction I shall refer the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to his Letter, as also to Captain Brisbane's, for the Capture of La Mignonne, mentioned in my Letter of the 3d, since when the Squadron has sent in the National Brig L'Aiguille, of Eight Guns, Cutter built, and very old; also the Vigilant Brig, of Eighteen Guns, new, and a fine Vessel; there are likewise Two Schooners, La Supérieure and Le Poisson Volant, both coppered, and very fine Vessels.

I am, &c. J. T. DUCKWORTH.

His Majesty's Ship Cumberland, between Jean Rabel and Cape Nichola Mole, SIR, 30th June 1803.

HAVING parted with the Convoy, as I had the Honor of informing you in my Letter of Yesterday, I stretched in with the Squadron, during the Night, for St. Domingo; soon after Daylight a large Sail was seen near the Fortugas steering down Cape Nichola Mole, and from the Cut of Sails I judged her to be a French Ship of War; the Cumberland, with the Vanguard, were soon close up to her, the latter on the Starboard Side, and the former on the Larboard Bow; in this Position she received a few Shot from the Vanguard, and, having fired one, struck to His Majesty's Squadron, and was immediately taken Possession of. She proved to be the Creole, a remarkably fine National French Frigate of Forty-four Guns, carrying Eighteen Pounders, and commanded by Citizen Le Bastard, from Cape François bound to Port-au Prince, at Sea one Day, having General Morgan (the Second in Command at St. Domingo) and Staff, with Five Hundred and Thirty Troops, on board, the Crew of the Frigate consisting only of One Hundred and Fifty Men, Two of whom were badly wounded. While we were taking Possession of the Prize, a small National Schooner, commanded by a Lieutenant, came into the Squadron, and was taken: She came from Cape François, and bound to Port au Prince, having on board One Hundred Blood Hounds from Cuba, intended to accompany the Army serving against the Blacks.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

H. W. BAYNTUN.

Rear-Admiral Sir J. T. Duckworth, K. B.
&c. &c. &c.

Goliath, off Cape Nichola Mole,
June 28, 1803.

SIR,

IN consequence of your Permission to chase, I stood in Shore to cut off the Two Ships seen this Morning, and was fortunate enough to carry up the Breeze to the Sternmost, which had got becalmed close under Cape St. Nicholas; she hauled her Colours down after returning a few Shot, and proved to be La Mignonne, a remarkable fast sailing Ship Corvette, of Sixteen long Eighteen-Pounders, (Six of which she had land'd,) commanded by Monsieur J. P. Bargeud, Capitaine de Fregate, Two Days from La Cayes, bound to the Cape in her Way to France. She has only Eighty Men.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) C. BRISBANE.

Commodore Bayman.

P. S. Last Night a small Schooner was observed standing into the Convoy, which appearing suspicious, I sent a Boat manned and armed, and found her to be a Frenchman, from St. Jago de Cuba to Port au Prince, with a Cargo of Sugar, and Three Thousand Four Hundred and Seventy-six Dollars in Cash. She has Three Guns and some Swivels mounted.

Admiralty-Office, September 17, 1803.

Extract of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Sir John Thomas Duckworth, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated the 17th July 1803.

CAPTAIN BISSELL, of the Racoon Sloop, gallantly went into the Port of Leogane, and, after an Action of Forty Minutes with the French National Brig Lodi, brought her out. The Particulars of which the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty will know from that Officer's Statement, transmitted herewith.

Racoon, off the East End of Jamaica,
16th July 1803.

SIR,

I BEG Leave to acquaint you, that, at Half-past Eleven on Monday Morning the 11th Instant, while working between the Island of Guanaba and St. Domingo, I observed a French National Brig lying at Anchor in Leogane Roads, and I immediately bore up for her. On approaching I found them preparing to receive us with Springs on their Cables, &c. At a Quarter before Three (P. M.) I anchored with Springs within Thirty Yards of him, and immediately commenced an Action, which was continued on both Sides for Thirty Minutes, when she cut her Cables and began to make off. I instantly cut and followed her; and, after about Ten Minutes more of well-directed Fire, we so completely unrigged her that she struck her Colours, and called out they had surrendered. We were obliged to anchor again immediately to prevent driving on Shore. She proves to be Le Lodi, pierced for Twenty Guns, but had only Ten mounted, commanded by M. Pierre Isaac Taupier, Capitaine de Fregate. Our Sails and Rigging are a good deal cut, but I am happy to say I had not a Man killed; and the only Person wounded is Mr. Thomas Gill, Master's Mate, whose Left Arm was carried off by a Shot; a very worthy promising young Man, who has served his Time in the Navy, and will, if he survives, do Credit to your Patronage. The Loss of the Enemy is One killed and Thirteen or Fourteen wounded, by their Account.

The Conduct of Mr. James Alexander Gordon, the First Lieutenant, on this as well as many other recent Occasions, has been highly Exemplary and Praiseworthy; and I have much Pleasure in informing you, that the Whole of the Officer and Ship's Company behaved fully to my Satisfaction.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

AUSTIN BISSELL.

Sir J. T. Duckworth, K. B. Commander in Chief of the Fleet, and Commander in Chief, &c. &c.

P. S. Enclosed is a List of Vessels taken and destroyed by His Majesty's Ship under my Command since the 7th of July.

July 6th. A Schooner at Anchor in a Bay near Cape Rosa; sunk.

July 7th. Schooner La Vertu, of Two Guns, carrying Troops and Provisions from Port au Prince to Jamaica; taken.

Sloop L'Ami des Colonies, of Two Guns; taken.

July 9th. A Schooner run on Shore, and sunk in Baradieu-Bay.

July 11th. Le Lodi National Brig, Captain P. J. Taupier.

AUSTIN BISSELL.

Admiralty-Office, September 17, 1803.

Copy of a Letter from the Honorable Charles Elphinstone Fleming, Captain of His Majesty's Ship the Egyptianne, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated at Sea, the 3rd August 1803.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to transmit you, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Copy of a Letter I have had the Honor of writing to Admiral Cornwallis, on the Capture of La Chiffonette French Privateer by His Majesty's Ship under my Command.

I am, &c. C. E. FLEMING.

His Majesty's Ship Egyptianne,
30th August 1803.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to inform you, that His Majesty's Ship under my Command last Night captured the French Privateer La Chiffonette, of Fourteen Guns and Eighty Men. She has been Twenty six Days from Bourdeaux, and has captured a Brig belonging to Jersey, from Santa Cruz bound to Hamburgh, which has been since recaptured by His Majesty's Ship Endymion: She falls remarkably fast, has been chased by several Frigates, and once by this Ship.

When the Chiffonette was first discovered, she was in the act of boarding an English Brig, but quitted her on our Approach.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

C. E. FLEMING.

Honorable Admiral Cornwallis, &c. &c. &c.

A PROCLAMATION,

For a General FAST.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God that He will graciously bless our Arms both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, That a public Day of Fasting and Humiliation be observed throughout those Parts of Our United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Wednesday the Nineteenth Day of October next, that so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins, and in the most devout and solemn Manner send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgments which Our manifold Provocations have most justly deserved; and for imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms for the Restoration of Peace and Prosperity to Us and Our Dominions: And We do strictly charge and command, that the said public Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in England and Ireland, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty: And, for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England and Ireland, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches, Chapels, and Places of public Worship, and to take Care that the same be timely dispersed throughout their respective Dioceses.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the Fourteenth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and three, and in the Forty-third Year of Our Reign.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High-Sheriffs and Grand Jury of the County of the City of Cork, assembled at Summer Assizes One thousand eight hundred and three.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High-Sheriffs and Grand Jury of the County of the City of Cork, assembled at Summer Assizes One thousand eight hundred and three, beg Leave to approach the Throne with those Sentiments of unshaken Fidelity and Attachment to your Royal Person, Family, and Government which have ever distinguished the Inhabitants of this City.

In adverting to the late desperate and wicked Attempt of a Set of misguided Traitors to overturn and seize upon your Majesty's Government in Ireland, we must view with Horror, and deplore with Anguish, those Acts of barbarous Cruelty which marked its short-lived Progress; and while we are filled with Indignation at the Disgrace which a Recurrence to Rebellion has brought upon our Country, we are animated by the warmest Admiration, and stimulated by the gallant Example, of your Majesty's brave Yeomanry of Dublin, who, in Co-operation with your Majesty's Government, crushed the Insurrection in its Onset, and have proved themselves their Country's zealous Defenders in the Hour of Trial.

We feel much Satisfaction in stating to your Majesty the present Tranquillity of this Part of the Country; our individual Exertions shall be unceasing to preserve it; but should our Hopes of its Continuance unhappily be disappointed, should a deluded People forsake the Shelter of those Laws which have made their Cottages their Castles, which give the humblest Peasant equal Protection with the proudest Peer, should they flee from their Allegiance to the best of Kings to become Slaves to the worst of Tyrants; protected as we are, confident we shall be, by your Majesty's Fleets from without, they will experience, in the determined Spirit of your Majesty's loyal Subjects from within, that Defeat which their Treason shall have incurred, that Punishment which their Crimes shall have deserved.

Most gracious Sir, in presuming to reiterate to your Majesty the Offer of our best and faithful Services, we are impelled by every Incitement which can be dear to Freeman. An Identity of Interest between the Monarch and his People is the real Source whence Loyalty should spring. It is this which has made the British Constitution the World's Admiration; and as, in your Majesty's just and wise Administration of it, you have made our Prosperity, Welfare, and Security your first Care, so shall we make your Majesty's Safety, Glory, and Happiness ours.

City Grand Jury Room, Cork, the Thirty-first Day of August, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

Thomas Duncombe and Chris. Cole, Sheriffs.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Kerry, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our ardent Assurances of inviolable Devotion to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

The late Ebullition of Treason in our Capital, while it tarnishes the national Character, has left us the most irreparable Misfortune to deplore; but we find a Consolation in the Effects which have followed, the People of Ireland are awakened to a clear and striking View of their Danger, our Resources are drawn forth by Government into Action, and all the Energies of the Country, no longer contented with mere Expressions of tame and torpid Loyalty, display an efficient Zeal in the common Cause of the Empire.

We desire to assure your Majesty that the Tranquillity of the County of Kerry, which stood amidst the general Wreck of our unhappy Country in the late Rebellion—a proud Monument of unshaken Loyalty, continues firm and undisturbed. We view the formidable Preparations of our implacable Foe have, be crucified; we feel that upon the Issue of this Struggle depends every Thing which can interest us in our domestic as well as our political Relations. We laugh at the Tyrant of Europe offering Emancipation to free Men; we wish to preserve our Property from Pillage, our Women from Dishonour, and our Men from the Murderer of Millions. We wish to transmit to our Posterity the bright Inheritance of Freedom which has descended upon us sealed with the best Blood of our Ancestors; to maintain our equal Laws, which protect or punish alike the Peasant and the Peer; and to rally round the most virtuous and best beloved Sovereign that ever swayed the British Sceptre; such are our Objects, such the inestimable Blessings which, under Divine Protection, we have resolved to defend, or perish in the glorious Effort.

Will. Meredith, High Sheriff of the County of Kerry.

Tralee, September 8, 1835.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Lincoln.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Lincoln, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of the warmest Affection to your Royal Person, and of inviolable Attachment to our Constitution in Church and State at this alarming Juncture, when your Majesty's Dominions are again plunged into the Calamities of War by the restless Ambition of an implacable Enemy. Warned by the Cruelties and Miseries those Nations have endured which have been conquered by his Arms, or betrayed into a Reliance upon his Promises, and persuaded that this free and happy Country is the Object of his peculiar Hatred, we desire to express to your Majesty our Readiness to submit to every Sacrifice which its Situation may require, and our Zeal to contribute by every Exertion, consistent with our holy Profession, towards the Preservation of its dearest and most important Interests. Influenced by the Principles of our Church, and animated by the Feeling of Britons, we shall anxiously endeavour to confirm that Spirit of Loyalty and Patriotism which your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, and the Danger to which the Country is now exposed, have excited among your Majesty's Subjects of all Ranks and Descriptions. And we now humbly and fervently implore the Omnipotent Governor of the Universe to extend over your Majesty and these Kingdoms that protecting Shield with which he has hitherto vouchsafed to guard this highly-favoured Nation; and to grant us Wisdom, Fortitude, and Vigour equal to the Contest we are called upon to support in Defence of those civil and religious Blessings by which this Island has been so long distinguished.

G. Lincoln.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary
York.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Peterborough, holding in the utmost Detestation and Abhorrence the insolent Menaces of a fierce and haughty Fox, so daringly and repeatedly thrown out against your Majesty's Crown and Dignity, as well as the happy Constitution of this United Kingdom, both in Church and State, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our warmest and strongest assurances, that nothing shall be wanting on our Parts towards securing and perpetuating the inestimable Blessings we have always hitherto enjoyed under your Majesty's most gracious and mild Government, by continually exhorting and assisting the People, whose Pastors we are, to a just Discharge of their Duty in Defence of our Liberty, our Laws, and our Religion; and more especially, by addressing our most earnest Prayers and Supplications to Almighty God for his all-powerful Aid and Protection at this awful Crisis; and that it may please Him, of his gracious Goodness, to continue your Majesty long, very long, in Health, Peace, and Safety on the Throne of this United Kingdom; and, after this Life ended, to receive you into an everlasting Habitation, the Seat of immortal Happiness and Glory.

Spt. Peterboro'.

York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's humble and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, the Dean, the Prebendaries, Canons, and Clergy of the Cathedral Church and Diocese of Bangor, beg Leave to express our sincere Sentiments of Duty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family; to repeat our grateful Sense of your Majesty's paternal Care for the Happiness of your People, and to manifest our Abhorrence of every Enemy to the Welfare and Perpetuity of the Form of Government, from which, we have, under the Divine Blessing, enjoyed in so eminent a Degree and Proportion, the inestimable Benefits of equal Laws, individual Liberty, and the Exercise of the purest and most perfect Religious Establishment. Impressed with these Sentiments we observe, with the deepest Concern, that the Prosperity with which God hath so long blessed us under the Government of your Majesty, and that of your Royal Ancestors, hath incited the envious and malignant Ambition of an Enemy to destroy so fair a Fabric of earthly Happiness, and so to forget the Dignity, the Decency, and the very End of all Civil and Religious Government, as to propose to a Christian Soldier the Licence of Rape, Murder, and unrestrained Lust, as the Reward of Success in Battle, and the Objects to be attained by the Efforts of an unprovoked Revenge. We therefore beg to assure your Majesty, that we feel it not more our temporal Interest, than the Duty of our Religion to oppose every Means of the Property which we possess in ourselves, as well of our Influence upon the Minds of those committed to our Care, in exciting them to every Exertion which may best tend to frustrate such atrocious and unjustifiable Designs. And, convinced that this awful Struggle for all which ought to be dear to us hath been unavoidable on the Part of this Nation. We offer up our earnest Prayers to the God of our Fathers in an humble and just Confidence that He will protect your Majesty and your People in the continued Enjoyment of our present Blessings against the savage and malicious Purposes of an Usurper and Apostate, seated on the Throne of murdered Kings in Disobedience of the God and Saviour whom we adore, and whom he hath, with a public Solemnity blasphemed and denied.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Cathedral Church and Diocese of Gloucester, impressed with the deepest Sorrow of the present awful Crisis of our Country, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and, while beholding our Monarchy, our Liberties, and our Religion menaced by an ambitious and implacable Enemy, to express our warmest Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and our determined Readiness to maintain, by every Exertion in our Power, the constitutional Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government.

Permit us, Sir, to assure your Majesty of our unremitting Endeavours to strengthen the Hands of Government, by promoting Piety and Virtue amongst those who are entrusted to our Care; by inculcating on them the religious Obligation to social Order and legal Obedience; and by animating them to a steady and vigorous Defence of all that can be dear to them as Men, as Britons, and as Christians.

With a grateful Acknowledgment to Divine Providence for all its Mercies and Favours to this Nation, we will not cease to offer up our ardent Supplications to the Almighty, that He would be graciously pleased to restore to us the Blessings of Peace, or to crown your Majesty's Arms with universal Success, and to prolong to the latest Period your Life and Health, for the Happiness of your faithful People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Gloucester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Gloucester, beg Leave to approach your Majesty at this momentous Crisis, and to assure your Majesty that, as we reflect with Gratitude on that conciliations Anxiety with which your Majesty has ever watched over and fostered the Concerns of the Church, and as we contemplate with Admiration the happy Effects resulting from its Alliance with the State under our present Constitution, so we consider every Preparation and every Menace inimical to these Objects as an additional Call for Attachment and Affection to the Source and the Supporter of our civil and religious Blessings.

Under these Impressions we find our Motives likely to your Majesty's Sacred Person and House increase in Proportion to the nearer approach of this Crisis. Actuated by a Sense of our Obligation, we shall not fail to inculcate the Duties, which at all Times most essentially conduce to the Preservation of public Safety, and which, at this Season, are absolutely and indissolubly requisite for our Existence as a People; the Duties of Fidelity, Submission, and Obedience to our Majesty, and to all those several Persons, who, under your Majesty's Appointment, are invested with Authority and Power. We feel it also our bounden Duty to pray with renewed Earnestness, that the Establishment delivered down to us by our Fathers may be still pure and undisturbed for Ages; and that your Majesty, as the Instrument of giving it that Protection which it has hitherto experienced under your Majesty's most gracious and auspicious Government, may enjoy a long and prosperous Reign. We cease not, therefore, to beseech the Almighty that the Measures which the Wisdom of your Majesty shall adopt, for averting the common Danger, may terminate in a successful Issue; and that your Majesty, by the Favour and Aid of Divine Providence, which worketh together all Things for Good, may long continue to be the supreme Head and paternal Defender of our established Church.

George Isaac, Bishop of Gloucester.
[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary
Trotter.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, and the Clergy of the Cathedral Church, and the Clergy of the whole Diocese of Saint Asaph.

SIR,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Cathedral Church, and the Clergy of the whole Diocese of Saint Asaph, beg Permission to approach your Royal Presence, to testify to your Majesty the Zeal with which we are animated in common with our Fellow-Subjects of all Ranks and Descriptions for the Defence of your Imperial Crown and of your sacred Person against foreign War and domestic Treason. To pray for the Preservation of your Majesty's Life, and the Prosperity of your Government, to teach the People that their loyal Submission to the Sovereign is indispensably required of them by the Principles of the Religion they profess; these are, among the ordinary Duties of the Ministers of the Gospel, incumbent upon them in all Times, and in all Seasons, and most of all in Times of public Danger and Disturbance, and in these we trust we have not been wanting. But in the present Moment there are yet other Services to your Majesty and to the Country, to which we hold ourselves obliged; for the Defence of your Majesty, of our Church, and of our Civil Constitution, we are ready to sacrifice not only our worldly Property, but our Lives. Not dissimulating that we hold in Detestation and Contempt those puritanical Doctrines, which would forbid it to the Christian to wield the Weapons even of defensive War, we declare ourselves ready to forego, in some Degree, the Exemptions tions granted to our sacred Order, and relying on your Majesty's Wisdom that you will choose for us such Branches of the Military Service, as may be the best adapted to our respective Ages, and the Stations which we severally hold, the least derogatory from the Sanctity of our Character, and such as may not more interfere than the Urgency of the Occasion may justify with our professional Duties, we are prepared to take such Part as your Majesty shall think fit to assign to any of us in the Defence of our Country, nor shall we scruple to mix in the Battle, if our Enemy, the Enemy of God and Man, should set Foot upon our Shore.

Asaphens.

Admiralty-Office, September 24, 1803.

Copy of a Letter from Sir James Saumarez, K. B. Rear Admiral of the Blue, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Cerberus, off Granville, the 15th Instant.

SIR,

I BEG you will please to inform my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that, having been joined by the Terror Bomb on the 8th, and the Sulphur on the 12th Instant, I embarked on board His Majesty's Ship Cerberus, and sailed from Guernsey Roads the following Morning, with the Charwell and Carteret Cutter in Company.

It blowing a strong Breeze from the Eastward, it was not until Tuesday Evening I was enabled to get off Granville, when, having had an Opportunity to reconnoitre the Enemy's Gun Vessels and other Craft within the Pier, and the different Batteries by which they were protected, I anchored in the Cerberus as near Shore as the Tide would admit, having only Sixteen Feet at low Water: At Eleven the Terror came up, but having also grounded, it was not until Two o'Clock that Captain Harding was enabled to place his Ship in the Position assigned to her, which he did in a most judicious Manner, and opened a brisk Fire from his Two Mortars, which was returned from the Mortar and Gun Batteries on the Heights near the Town, and also from some Guns on the Pier, and the Gun-Vessels placed in the Entrance.

From the Number of well-directed Shells thrown from the Terror into the Pier, and Parts of the Town, I am persuaded they must have done very considerable Damage. The Fire was kept up till after Five o'Clock, when I thought it advisable to recall the Terror, and anchored with this Ship and the Charwell a short Distance further from the Town.

The Sulphur Bomb, whose bad Sailing prevented her from beating up, joined shortly after, and also anchored. The Loss on this Occasion was Two Men wounded by Splinters on board the Terror.

A few Shells were thrown in the Evening, but the Tide prevented the Ships getting sufficiently near to be attended with much Effect.

This Morning the Squadron were under Sail before Dawn of Day, and all Circumstances concurred to enable them to take their respective Stations with the utmost Precision; the Two Mortar-Vessels opened a brisk and well-directed Fire soon after Five o' clock, which was unremittingly kept up until half-past Ten, when the falling Tide rendered it necessary to withdraw from the Attack. Twenty-two Gun-Vessels, that had hauled out of the Pier, drew up in a regular Line, and kept up a heavy Fire, jointly with the Batteries around the Port, without doing much Execution.

The Cerberus, after getting under Sail, grounded on one of the Sand-Banks, and remained above Three Hours before she floated: Nine of the Gun-Boats, perceiving her Situation, endeavoured to annoy her, and kept up a heavy Fire upon her for some Time, but were silenced by the Churchill and Kite, and also by the Fire from the Sulphur and Terror Bombs, and by the Canonade of each of the Cerberus, under the Orders of Lieutenant Maitell, assisted by the Elbow and Cateret, which obliged them to take Shelter in their Port.

In the Performance of this arduous Service I cannot too highly applaud the Zeal and persevering Exertions of all the Officers and Men under my Orders; and I should not do Justice to the Merits of Captain Selby, was I not to acknowledge the Affluence I have received from him since I have had the Honor of being in his Ship. The Steadiness and good Conduct of all the Officers and Men in the Cerberus, during the Time the Ship was aground, also do them infinite Credit.

The various Services on which Captain M'Leod, of the Sulphur, and Captain Hardinge, of the Terror, have been employed this War, are already sufficiently known, but I will venture to assert that in no Instance can they have displayed greater Zeal and Gallantry than on the present Occasion; and great Praise is also due to Lieutenant Macartney and Lieutenant Smith, and the Parties of Artillery embarked on board the respective Bomb-Vessels. It is not possible to ascertain the Damages the Enemy have sustained on this Occasion, but as, during the Bombardment, very few (if any) of the Shells missed taking Effect, they must have been very considerable.

I am, &c. J. A. SAUMAREZ.

Admiralty-Office, September 24, 1803.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Montagu to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship the Undaunted, in the Downs, the 20th Instant.

SIR,

ENCLOSED I have the Honor to transmit a Duplicate of Intelligence received from Captain Owen, of His Majesty's Ship the Immortalité, the Original being sent to the Commander in Chief.

I am, &c. ROBERT MONTAGU.

His Majesty's Ship Immortalité, off Saint Vallery en Caux, 14th September, 1803.

MY LORD,

IN Obedience to the Order of Rear-Admiral Montagu, I, at Eight o'Clock this Morning, in Company with the Porpens and Explosion Bombs, commenced an Attack on the Batteries which protect the Town of Dieppe, and Vessels building there (in Number, Seventeen).

The Firing was continued on both Sides till past Eleven, when the Lee Tide making strong, and the Town having taken Fire by day in one Place, and Night in Two others, I called the Bombs to weigh, and proceeded with them off St. Vallery en Caux, where they are constructing Six Vessels, and at Three in the Afternoon opened our Fire at that Place for an Hour. The Enemy was for the most Part driven from their Batteries, the Inhabitants flying to the Country, and leaving the Destruction in which many of the Shells burst, they must have suffered much.

On a Service of this Nature we cannot expect to choose unhurt; I have, however, the Pleasure in reporting to your Lordship, that the greatest Number of Fire, especially from the Porpens and Explosion Bombs in Batterie A, was heavy and well directed, and the many of their Shot took Effect, and destroyed a few but small; the Port is but One Man-of-War, and the Subject of the Fire is a Ship of the Line. The Bombards of the Ship with these Vessels are confined by Subject, but did not fire the Shot, and the Chain Drums (but did not fire the Shot), is confined chiefly to the Bombards.

The Manner of executing my Orders, and the Judgment shown in placing and manœuvring the Bomb Vessels, entitle Captain Hardinge and Captain Paul to my best and warmest Thanks; their Conduct has been every Thing I wish, and they speak highly of the Officers and Detachments of the Royal Artillery embarked with them, as well as of the Officers and Men of their respective Crews. My Opinion of the First Lieutenant of this Ship, Charles F. Payne, is already known to your Lordship, and his Conduct this Day, as well as that of the other Lieutenants, Officers, and Men, without Exception, has fully justified the Reports I have made your Lordship concerning them on former Occasions, who have the Honor to be, &c.

E. W. C. R. OWEN.

Right Honorable Lord Keith, &c. &c.

&c. &c. &c.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Hallowell, of His Majesty's Ship Argo, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated at Sea, the 12th September 1803.

SIR,

BE pleased to acquaint their Lordships, that His Majesty's Ship Argo has this Day captured L'Oiseau Cutter Privateer, of Ten Guns and Sixty-eight Men, commanded by Nicholas Bunc Daulin, Ensigne de Vaisseau; her Second Lieutenant was unfortunately killed by One of our Guns during the Chase. She had been Nine Days from Rochfort, and taken nothing.

I am, Sir, &c. B. HALLOWELL.

Admiralty-Office, September 24, 1803.

Copy of a Letter from Lieutenant William Gibbons, commanding His Majesty's Hired Cutter Joseph, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated at Falmouth, the 20th Instant.

SIR,

HAVING received Orders from Captain Esau of His Majesty's Brig Garnet to cruise off Mounts Bay, and being led considerably to the Southward and Westward in Chase, and by strong Gales of Wind, blown off Cape Finislarre, on the 8th of this Month, at Daylight, and at the clearing up of a Fog, discovered the Maria Privateer of Guernsey Two or Three Miles to Windward of us in Chase of Two Brigs, One of which, L'Esper Privateer of St. Malo, was firing her Stern Chasers at her, and at Times giving her Broadides; we tacked, and in about an Hour we got within Sight

Shot of her, and gave her one Four-Pounder, and some Muskets, when she struck her Colours, having wounded One Man slightly on board the Maria, and having One of her own Men wounded. She proved to be L'Espoir Privateer of St. Malo's, of Six Guns, Six Pounders, and Fifty-two Men. I sent the Maria after the other Brig, her Prize, being the Lafayette, and in Two Hours she recaptured her, proving to be the Two Friends of London, from Mogadore to London.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. GIBBONS.

Whitehall, September 23, 1803.

For a General FAST.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God that He will graciously bless Our Arms both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, That a public Day of Fasting and Humiliation be observed throughout those Parts of Our United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Wednesday the Nineteenth Day of October next, that to both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins, and in the most devout and solemn Manner send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgments which Our manifold Provocations have most justly deserved; and for imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms for the Restoration of Peace and Prosperity to Us and Our Dominions: And We do strictly charge and command, that the said public Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in England and Ireland, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contempt and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty: And, for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England and Ireland, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches, Chapels, and Places of public Worship, and to take Care that the same be timely dispersed throughout their respective Dioceses.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the Fourteenth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and three, and in the Forty-third Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

For a General FAST.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God that He will graciously bless Our Arms, both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, That a public Day of Fasting and Humiliation be observed throughout that Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland, on Thursday the Twentieth Day of October next, that to both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins, and in the most devout and solemn Manner, send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgments which Our manifold Provocations have most justly deserved; and for imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms, for the Restoration of Peace, and Prosperity to Us and Our Dominions: And We do strictly charge and command, That the said Public Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in Scotland, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contempt and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty, Our Will is, therefore, and We charge, that this Our Proclamation seen, ye forthwith pass to the Market Cross of Edinburgh, and all other Places needful, and there, in Our Name and Authority, make Publication hereof, that none pretend Ignorance: And Our Will and Pleasure is, that Our Solicitor do cause printed Copies hereof to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several Shires, Stewarts of Stewartries, and Bishops of Regalities, and their Clerks, whom We ordain to see the same published; and We appoint them to send Copies hereof to the several Parish Churches within their Bounds, that upon the Lord's Day immediately preceding the Day above-mentioned, the same may be published, and read from the Pulpits, immediately after Divine Service.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Fourteenth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and three, in the Forty third Year of Our Reign.

Admiralty-Office, September 27, 1803.

Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B. Admiral of the Blue, &c. to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Monarch, off Broadstairs, the 25th Instant.

SIR,

I TR NSMIT, for their Lordships' Information, a Letter which I have received from Rear Admiral Montagu, and one which was addressed to him by Mr. Joseph Thomas, the Master of the Prince's Augusta Hired Armed Cutter, of Eight Three-Pounder Guns, and Twenty-five Men, reporting the Particulars of an Engagement between that Vessel and Two Dutch Armed Schooners, in which Lieutenant Scott, her Commanding Officer, has been killed. The Resistance made by the Princess Augusta to so superior a Force does great Credit to the gallant, but unfortunate Officer, who commanded her, as well as to the Master and her Crew.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

KEITH.

*Utrecht, in the Downs,
Sept. 23, 1803.*

MY LORD,
THE Princess Augusta Hired Armed Cutter arrived at Dover this Evening; her Lieutenant, J. W. Scott, Gunner, William Lavender, and Boatswain, William Cornelius, being slain in Battle, on the 20th Instant, in Combat with Two Dutch Schooners, the one mounting Twelve Guns, and Seventy Men, the other Eight Guns and Fifty Men.

The Lieutenant, in his dying Moments, recommended the Master to fight the Cutter bravely; and to tell the Admiral he did his Duty.

These Expressions, my Lord, in the Moments of Dissolution, will endear his Memory to his Countrymen; and, whilst those more immediately connected with him sigh at the Recollection of their Loss, they will have the Consolation to reflect, that he fell gloriously in his Country's Cause, expiring with the Heroism of a British Officer.

Two Seamen, Crump and Rose, are also wounded; the former with a Ball in the Thigh, the latter with a Ball above the Ankle.

The Princess Augusta, your Lordship will recollect, is One of the smallest Cutters under your Lordship's Command, being about Seventy Tons.

The Conduct of Joseph Thomas, the Master, and the Crew of this little Vessel, fighting bravely after the Loss of their Officer, and beating off Two Vessels of such superior Force, merits more Encomium than my Pen is enabled to express.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

ROBERT MONTAGU.

His Majesty's Hired Cutter Princess Augusta, Joseph Thomas, Master.

SIR,
SATURDAY September 24th, Three Hours, Four Minutes, P. M. I landed at Dover, not being able to get into the Downs this Tide. After delivering Orders from Lord Keith to His Majesty's Ships cruising off Helvoetsluys, Texel, and the Entrance of the Elbe, on Tuesday the 20th Instant, at Five, P. M. Texel bearing S. W. Distance Fifteen Leagues, saw Two Schooners in the S. W. bearing down towards us, under English Colours; got all clear for Action, suspecting them to be Enemies. At Half past Six, P. M. they hauled down their English Colours, and hoisted Dutch; then, being within Hail, asked What Sloop we was? Lieutenant Scott answered, Princess Augusta; the largest, which hailed, being to Windward, gave us a Broadside, which killed our Gunner and Boatswain, and wounded Lieutenant Scott in the Shoulder, who died the next Morning, at Forty-five Minutes past Nine, A. M. with his Wound. We then returned our Broadside at the largest, which mounted Twelve Guns, and had on board Seventy Men, who endeavored to board us several Times to Windward, which was the Larboard Side. The smallest, which mounted Eight Guns, and had on board Fifty Men, agreeable to the Number we saw on Deck, which came up under our Lee and gave us his Broadside, then endeavored to board us; but after an Hour's Engagement, close Quarters, with the largest one a Bowsprit over our Stern, several Times, by the Assistance of the Mate and Execution of the Crew we beat them off; but our Rigging and Hull being much damaged, and having Two Men killed and Three wounded, out of our small Number, we were not able to renew the Action.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JOSEPH THOMAS.

Whitehall, September 8, 1803.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto His Excellency William Drummond, His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at the Sublime Porte, His Royal Licence and Permission to receive and wear the Insignia of the Order of the Crescent transmitted to him by the Grand Signior:

And also to command, that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration, together with the relative Documents, be registered in His College of Arms.

St. James's, September 21, 1803.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Conveener, Deacons, and whole incorporated Trades of the City of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHILE our Fellow-Subjects are unanimous in expressing their Sentiments of Loyalty for your Majesty's Person and Government, and of Zeal for defending our Country against a threatened Invasion, we also esteem it our Duty to make known to your Majesty our most sincere and hearty Concurrence in the same Sentiments and Resolutions.

Though we must lament the Calamities and Distresses occasioned by the War in which we have been so long involved, yet we have hitherto enjoyed the good Fortune of seeing it confined to foreign Nations and other Lands, and of pursuing our peaceful Occupations in Security; but now when we are in Danger of being attacked upon our own native Shores, and every Blessing we possess becomes the Prize of Victory, it is Time for every Hand to arm, and for every Citizen to be a Soldier.

Many of our young Men have already evinced their Patriotism as Volunteers in your Majesty's Service, and, if called on, another Battalion can be instantly raised, ready and willing, with Heart and Hand, to defend our Country and our Constitution against every invading Enemy.

From these and similar Exertions, assisted by the Spirit and Gallantry of your Majesty's Navy and Regular Army, we rely with perfect Confidence, that this daring Attempt of Invasion will be defeated, or, should it be allowed by Divine Providence to take Place, it will only be permitted to ensure the complete and final Destruction of the Invaders.

May such be the happy Termination of the Contest—may it lead to the Establishment of a permanent Peace—and may we, free from domestic Factions or desolating Wars, long enjoy the Happiness of your Majesty's just and paternal Administration.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the whole incorporated Trades of the City of Aberdeen, at Aberdeen, the Tenth Day of September, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and three. John Leslie, Conveener.

[Presented by James Farquhar, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Cork, assembled at Summer Assizes One thousand eight hundred and three.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High-Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Cork, assembled at Summer Assizes One thousand eight hundred and three, humbly beg Leave to avail ourselves of this Opportunity to reiterate our Assurances of inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family, and Government, and to declare to your Majesty the just Indignation with which this County has viewed the late abominable, but happily abortive, Efforts of our insidious Enemy, to animate the Embers of his expiring Interest in this County, by exciting an Insurrection in the Capital, which, although partial in its Extent, and contemptible in its Influence, has, in the Murder of the great and good Kilwarden, been marked with a Spirit of disgraceful and disgusting Ferocity.

In this Attempt we recognize the wily Artifice, the vindictive Zeal, and the restless Malignity which have uniformly characterized the Hostility of the perfidious Power we have to contend with, who has consigned to the Machinations of Treason and of Art his Hopes of enslaving a Country that has defied both his Threats and his Arms. We venture to assure your Majesty that Treason will be confounded, and that Loyalty and Liberty will triumph.

We contemplate with Exultation the Effect which the late Insurrection has produced. The Energy of the Nation is aroused. The Apathy of Indolence is discarded; and in the mild and dignified Administration of Justice which has followed the Phrenzy of Rebellion, the signal Superiority of our venerated Constitution is happily contrasted with the wild and sanguinary System of those who would endeavour to subvert it.

For the Preservation of that Constitution, for the Maintenance of your Majesty's just Rights and those of the Empire, we confidently proclaim, there is in the Country an ample Fund of affectionate Loyalty and of enthusiastic Devotion.

We know that we contend for every Blessing and every Comfort that can render Life amiable or interesting, against the profligate Usurpation of a Individual who aims at the Destruction of all human Happiness, and we desire our Enjoyments only, as we are determined to defend them.

Rob. De Labon, High Sheriff of the County of Cork.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Yorke.]

W. Fawcener.

St. James's, September 28, 1803.

THE following Addressees having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Westmeath, beg Leave to approach your Throne with renewed Assurances of the fidelity and Attachment which we have always borne towards your Royal Person and our happy Constitution; and more particularly at this time, when an insatiable Enmity hath threatened an immediate Attack upon our Country with a View to general Ruin, and to reduce to slavery a free and independent Nation.

With united Hearts and Voices we humbly tender to your Majesty the zealous and constant Assertion of our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of that admirable Constitution, those revered Laws, and that benign System of Government which has given to us the Enjoyment of great, and the Prospect of still greater Prosperity.

By the wild and insatiable Ambition of the present Ruler of France, deaf to the Calls of Humanity, and neglectful of the Duty he owes to the People for whom he presides, your Majesty has been forced again to have Recourse to Arms, and Two Nations, disposed to live in Peace and Amity, are once more plunged into a State of Warfare from which they had been released by the Wisdom and Moderation of your Majesty's Councils.

We view with painful Imagination the baneful Designs of the Enemy on this Part of your Majesty's Dominions, his base and malignant Conspiracy with those Traitors who so recently experienced your Majesty's Clemency, who are now become the Instruments of a foreign Despot, and are again employed in Endeavours to seduce from their just and honorable Allegiance, those devoted Men whom they had formerly misled, and afterwards betrayed to the Proficiency, from which, by the Royal Mercy, they were saved. To frustrate this and every other Design hostile to your Majesty and to the Welfare of our Country. We pledge ourselves, Sire, to shun no Fatigue, to shrink from no Danger, to repine at no Expense, and we firmly rely on the paternal Protection of your Majesty, on the Commencement, the Support, and Direction of your Government here, to give Effect to our humble but zealous Endeavours.

We call upon the Almighty Ruler of the Universe to shield and protect your Royal Person and Throne from foreign and domestic Foes, and to direct your Councils and invigorate your Arms as to secure to your Majesty that Glory most dear to your Royal Breast—the Glory of terminating a just and unavoidable War by a safe, honourable, and permanent Peace.

Joseph Morgan Daly, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary
Tolke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Donegal, humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our firm and devoted Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and of our unalterable Resolution to guard and protect them both from the open or insidious Attacks of foreign or domestic Enemies.

When Rebellion has again dared to shew itself in this Island, and a vindictive and implacable Foe threatens us with Invasion and Desolation, it becomes the indispensable Duty of every loyal Subject to declare his sentiments, and to assist in increasing and directing properly that patriotic Spirit which now animates the Breasts of so great a Majority of your Majesty's Subjects.

We are happy to declare that in this County every Rank and Description of Men, warmly concur in support of the public Tranquillity; we trust therefore, that at this Crisis, when every Thing dear to us is at stake, the same Unity will continue to prevail, and that every Irishman will be equal to manifest, by his Exertions, his Zeal in Defence of his King and Country, and in the Support of that enviable Constitution under which the Empire has so long flourished.

William Toyn, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary
Tolke.]

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Cardigan, at a Meeting convened by the Sheriff, beg Leave to join at this important Crisis, in the universal Acclamations of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, resounding from one End of your Majesty's Dominions to the other.

Your Majesty's People are sensible of the Pre-eminence they enjoy over the Subjects of every other Nation, in living under a free Constitution and Government, and they feel the Blessings resulting therefrom.

They are sensible that they have a Monarch seated on the Throne of these Kingdoms whose Happiness consists in the Welfare of his People, and in guarding those Rights and Liberties which his Ancestors were called upon to renovate and defend.

No Terror, no Threats therefore, can appal the Minds of Britons, whose Hearts are stamped with such Impressions as never can be effaced, nor can the Delusion of our artful, cruel, and unrelenting Foe, seduce them from their Duty and Allegiance to their lawful Sovereign.

These are the genuine Sentiments of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects now assembled, who, influenced by the Sense of Duty and Respect, beg Leave to express their Determination to conquer or die in the Defence of their Laws, their Country, and their King.

Signed by Order of the Freeholders of Cardigan-shire, convened at a General Meeting.

J. Lloyd, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Archdeacon, and Chapter, and the Clergy of the Diocese of Landaff.

S I R E,

AS Ministers of the Gospel we pray for the Peace of Christendom and of the World, as Subjects of your Majesty we call to mind, and, with the utmost Sincerity of Soul, we renew the Obligation of the Oath of Allegiance which we have hitherto individually taken, and, as become Men jealous of their Freedom, we on this Occasion solemnly pledge ourselves to maintain, with our real Ability, the Independence of our Country.

Glorious and unexampled on the Surface of the Earth is your Majesty's Situation! Princes there are who reign over more extensive Regions; Princes there are, who, in Times of Peace, support their Thrones by more numerous Armies, and who exercise over their Subjects a more unlimited Sway. But where is the Prince in Europe, or in the World, who, in the Day of Danger, fees himself voluntarily protected as your Majesty is, by the united Efforts of all his People; by the Persons of those who are able to wield a Weapon, by the Prayers of the Aged, and of the Sex, by the Purse of the Rich, and by the Hearts of all!

We humbly implore Almighty God to bless these noble Exertions of a brave, a loyal, and an enlightened Nation, and to bring to the Safety of our King and his Kingdom, and to confirm to us in the just Defence of their Religion, their Liberty, and their Country.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and loyal Address of the Mayor, Corporation, and principal Inhabitants of Falmouth, in Cornwall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, and principal Inhabitants of Falmouth, in Cornwall, beg Leave, at this momentous Crisis, to join the Rest of your Majesty's faithful Subjects in thus expressing our sincere Fidelity and cordial Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, and our resolute Determination to support and defend, by every Means in our Power, the Rights of your Majesty, ourselves, and Fellow-Subjects against the insulting Threats of an implacable Enemy.

We enjoy too many Blessings under the mild Government of your Majesty, that we cannot, without the utmost Indignation, hear of any Attempt to disturb the Repose and Peace of this Kingdom.

We, therefore, confiding in the Justice of our Cause, and humbly trusting in the Providence of Heaven, are resolved, in our several Capacities, to exert ourselves to the utmost for the Welfare and Independence of the whole British Empire, the Peace and Happiness of which we have been long assured it is your Majesty's constant Will and Endeavour to promote.

Given under the Common-Seal of the said Corporation this Twenty-third Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three.

By Order of the Meeting,

Tipp, Town-Clerk.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, the Chancellor, and Clergy of the Diocese of Chester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Chancellor, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Chester, beg Leave most humbly and affectionately to approach your Majesty's Throne with a renewed Pledge of our Duty and Loyalty, and a sincere Expression of our Sentiments on the present critical State of public Affairs.

Deeply impressed by the inestimable Advantages we have enjoyed for so many Years, under the Government of a Sovereign as venerable for his private Virtues as for the Wisdom and Firmness with which he has administered the regal Office; and inflexibly attached to a Constitution, which secures to us the full Enjoyment of our civil Rights, and the Exercise of our Holy Religion, we view with the utmost Abhorrence the avowed Preparations of an Enemy, who would endeavour to wrest these Blessfings from us, and subject us under the Iron Yoke of an intolerable Usurpation.

We partake of the patriotic Animation that now pervades the whole Country. It is not for us indeed, in Opposition to the studious and sequestered Habits of our Education and Profession, and to the declared Sentiments of the Legislature, to oppose the ambitious Invaders of our Country in the Ranks of an Army, but we will endeavour to serve the great Cause, in which every patriot Heart must be engaged, with an Efficacy perhaps not inferior. We have peculiar and appropriate Duties to perform, on a due Attention to which the Existence of the State must principally depend, and without which the Resources of Wealth, however incalculable, and the Exertions of Number and Spirit beyond all Example, would prove of little Avail.

On the Discharge of these important Duties we pledge ourselves to your Majesty to employ our best Faculties zealously and unemittingly. We will excite those committed to our spiritual Care to the most vigorous Exertions, by showing the inestimable Value of the pure reformed Protestant Religion, as it is happily established in these Kingdoms. We will inculcate that admirable Code of Morals, which, while it characterizes the Christian Dispensation, is best calculated to afford Stability to the State. We will teach Prayer and Dependence on Almighty God, who is the God of Battles, and with whom alone are the Issues of War.

Devoting ourselves wholly to these Occupations, we trust we shall be found most actively and efficaciously discharging our peculiar Duties, as they respect the Service of God, and the Prosperity of our Country.

Such, Sir, are the zealous Professions, and such shall be found to be the faithful Conduct of this Portion of the Clergy of your Majesty's Dominions on the Occasion of the present Threat of Invasion of these Kingdoms. Should the ambitious and unprincipled Foe presume to pollute these Shores, we look with Satisfaction to the Righteousness of our Cause, and to the impenetrable Phalanx of a whole Nation of Patriots: We call to Mind the sacred and inflexible Courage which animated the Breasts of the holy Army of Martyrs, who shed their Blood in Attestation of the pure and reformed Faith; but, above all, we feel Confidence from a grateful Recollection of the past signal Mercies of Almighty God vouchsafed to this Nation at Seasons of Distress; and we will never cease to implore the King of Kings to shield your Majesty from all Danger, and to continue the Existence and Prosperity of a State in which the Happiness and dearest Interests of its chief Governor are inseparably bound up.

H. Cheller.
[Presented by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary
Trotter.]

Most Gracious Sir,

We, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Edinburgh, deeply impressed with the present alarming Situation of our Country, beg Leave to approach your Throne to express our warmest Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

We feel grateful to Divine Providence for having prolonged your Majesty's valuable Life, which has been uniformly employed in promoting the Happiness of your People.

We sincerely regret that the late Peace, which your Majesty so seasonably concluded, has been of such short Duration, and that your Majesty has been again involved in War, in Defence of your Crown, and of the dearest Rights of your People.

The Rulers of France, jealous of the Prosperity of your Majesty's Subjects, have threatened to invade our Country, and to destroy our Liberty, our Property, and all the happy Fruits of our excellent Constitution—a Constitution framed by the Wisdom of our Ancestors, and which has been preserved sacred and inviolable by your Majesty.

But we trust that there is Spirit in your Subjects, with the Help of God, to defeat all their hostile Attempts. We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that, as Ministers of the Gospel, it has been our constant Endeavour, and we trust, not without Success, to inculcate upon our People a sacred Regard to Religion and Moral, and a Spirit of Loyalty and Patriotism so necessary to the well-being of our Country. Your Majesty's Subjects under our Care, have joined with each other in Affection to your Majesty, and in Fidelity to your Government, and have stepped forwards with Zeal in Defence of both. Great Exertions have been necessary, but they have been made with Cheerfulness, and we hope in God will be accompanied with the wished-for Success.

That it may please Almighty God long to preserve your Majesty so endeared to your People by your auspicious Government, and by your personal Virtues; to shower down upon your Royal House the richest of his Gifts, and, after a successful War, to restore the inestimable Blessing of Peace, are the fervent Prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful and affectionate Subjects.

Signed in our Name and by our Appointment.

And. Duncan, Moderator.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Montagu to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Archer, Downs, 28th September 1803.

SIR,

ENCLOSED I have the Honor to transmit a Duplicate of Intelligence received from Captain Jackson, of the Autumn, the Original being transmitted to the Commander in Chief.

I am, &c. R. MONTAGU.

His Majesty's Sloop Autumn, off Calais, 28th September 1803.

THE Winds springing up Yesterday Morning from the Eastward, I thought it a proper Opportunity to attack the Enemy's Vessels in Calais, in order that they should not get them up the Harbour out of the Reach of our Fire: I waited till it was half Ebb in the Harbour, at which Time they take the Ground; we then bore up, and, after trying and finding out the Distance, we anchored—the Bombs to the N. E. of the Town, the other Part of the Squadron a-bread of the Town and Pier Heads, to draw the Enemy's Fire as much as we could from the Bombs, so as not to prevent their acting. After we anchored a-bread of the Town and Pier Head Battery, the Enemy opened their Fire on us from all Directions, amongst which, I found they had Mortars, the first Shell fell within a Ship's Length of us and burst under Water, our Vessels at that Time were so close, that I thought there was a great Probability some of their Shells might fall on board, whilst I found our Shot (though they all reached the Pier Heads.) would not go so far up as their Ships, I therefore made the Signal to weigh and open to a greater Distance, remaining at Anchor myself. The Squadron has been very fortunate in receiving no Damage from the Enemy's Fire. The Bombs were now keeping up a well-directed Fire, many of the Shells evidently falling in the midst of their Gun Boats; the Shells that fell over the Boats went into the Town, and must have done great Damage; the East End of the Town appeared to be on fire for some Time. From the Enemy's Boats and Vessels being covered under the Land, it was impossible to judge what Damage they sustained, but it must have been considerable; it now came on to blow so fresh from the N. E. that the Springs would not hold the Ship against the Wind and Tide; the Tartarus' Anchor having given way, I was obliged to make the Signal to discontinue their Fire.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

S. JACKSON.

Rear-Admiral Montagu, Downs.

Admiralty-Office, October 1, 1803.

Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B. Admiral of the Blue, &c. to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Monarch, off Broadstairs, the 30th September 1803.

SIR,

ENCLOSE, for their Lordships' Information, is a Copy of a Letter from Captain Horniman, of His Majesty's Ship the Leda, to Rear-Admiral Montagu, reporting the Attempts which he had made, with His Majesty's Ships and Vessels under his Order, to obstruct the Progress of the Enemy's Gun Boats from the Eastward towards the Port of Boulogne; and have the Honor to be, &c.

KEITH.

His Majesty's Ship Leda, off Boulogne, September 29, 1803.

SIR,

IN Answer to your's of this Date, I have the Honor to acquaint you, that the Enemy's Gun-Vessels, being Twenty-six in Number, were Yesterday discovered coming out of Calais soon after I had dispatched Lieutenant Cameron to you; I immediately gave Chase with the Squadron under my Command, but although every Effort was used on our Part they anchored close in with the Pier at Boulogne, after a severe Cannonade of Three Hours, which was returned from them as well as their numerous Batteries on Shore: It was my Intention to have bombarded them in that Situation, and had made the Signal for that Purpose, but the Wind blowing strong off Shore, and a Lee Tide, prevented the Bombs from taking their Stations accordingly. At Daylight this Morning another Squadron of the Enemy's Gun-Boats (Twenty-five in Number) were discovered coming from the Eastward; immediately proceeded to attack them, and, after a severe Cannonade for nearly Three Hours, they anchored in the Situation with the Vessels last Night, with the Loss of Two of them, they having been driven on Shore, and bilged upon the Rocks. There are at present Fifty-five Gun-Vessels at an Anchor outside the Pier of Boulogne. I am happy to add that I have not received Reports of any material Injury being done to any of the Squadron under my Command;—a Shell fell on board the Ltda, which burst in her Hold, doing little Injury to the Ship, and without hurting a Man.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) ROB. HONYMAN.
Rear-Admiral Montagu, &c. &c. &c.

Admiralty-Office, October 1, 1803.

*Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, to Sir Esmon Napier, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Thetis, off Toulon, August 10 1803.*

SIR,

I Herewith transmit you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, Copy of a Letter from Captain Donnelly, of His Majesty's Ship Narcissus, giving an Account of the Capture of the French National Brig of War L'Alcion.

She appears to be a remarkably fine Vessel, fit for His Majesty's Service.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

NELSON and BRONTE.

*His Majesty's Ship Narcissus, at Sea, 9.5 July 18 3.*

I HAVE the Honor to inform your Lordship, the Ship I command being off the Island of St. Peter's, near Sardinia, Yesterday Morning, at Daylight, a Sail was discovered in the South West Quarter, to which we gave Chase, and, at Two o'Clock this Morning, captured her, after a Pursuit of Twenty-two Hours; upon boarding we found her to be the French National Brig of War L'Alcion, of Sixteen Guns and Ninety-six Men, commanded by Captain Lacree, returning from Alexandria, where she had been on a particular Mission. She appears to be one of the finest Vessels of her Class I have seen; is built upon a new Construction, sails prodigiously fast, is well equipped, and only One Year old.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

ROSS DONNELLY.

Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson,
&c. &c. &c.

Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B. Admiral of the Blue, &c. to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship the Monarch, off Broadstairs, the 2d Instant.

SIR,

I ENCLOSE, for their Lordships' Information, a Copy of a Letter which has been received by Rear-Admiral Montagu from Lieutenant Leaver, commanding His Majesty's Gun Brig the Jackall, reporting the Capture of One of the Enemy's Armed Sloops; and have the Honor to be &c.

KEITH.

His Majesty's Gun Brig Jackall, off Ostend, Sept. 29, 1803.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that this Afternoon I gave Chase to a Vessel running along Shore between Nieuport and Dunkirk, but it falling nearly calm I dispatched Mr. Simpson, Master, Six Seamen, and Four Marines to board her, which Duty they performed in a very spirited Manner under a heavy Fire from Three Field-Pieces brought on the Beach, and a small Battery of Two Guns, within Half Pistol-Shot, the Enemy being aground when boarded. She proves to be an Armed Sloop of Four Two Pounders, belonging to Dunkirk; I believe taken up for the Conveyance of Troops. Her Crew escaped on Shore to the Number of Ten or Twelve. A light Breeze springing up, with the Assistance of my Sweeps, I was enabled to arrive Time enough with the Brig to cover the Boat and Prize coming off. Although the Sloop kept a continual Fire on the Boat, I am happy to say there was not any Person hurt. She ran on Shore betwixt the Calms and the Main. The masterly Manner in which Mr. Purdy, Pilot, conducted the Brig in that Navigation, does him great Credit.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) C. P. LEAVER, Lieut. Rear-Admiral Montagu. and Commander.

St. James's, September 28, 1803.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

SIR,

AT the present alarming Crisis, when the Empire is threatened with Invasion from a powerful and inveterate Enemy, we, the Deputy-Lieutenants, Freeholders, Heritors, Justices of Peace, and Commillioners of Supply of the County of Orkney, approach your Majesty to testify our loyal and unalterable Attachment to your Throne and Person; to assure your Majesty of our firm Resolution to co-operate with the Rest of your faithful Subjects in every Measure for the public Defence; and to express our just Confidence in your Councils and Arms, and in the united Exertions of the whole People, for the Preservation of our National Independence, of our Constitution and Liberties, and of all that is sacred and dear to Men.

Signed by Appointment of the Meeting,

Mulcom Laing, Preses.

[Presented by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary
Torke.]

May it please your Majesty,

THE Presbytery of Lochmaben, in the County of Dumfries, beg Leave, at the present alarming Period, to approach the Throne with this Declaration of their dutiful Sentiments.

We have heard with Indignation the Threatenings of your Majesty's ambitious Enemies, whom we consider as the Enemies of Mankind, and whose treacherous, revolutionary, atheistical, and destructive Principles we hold in Detestation.

The Zeal and Unanimity which prevail within our Bounds for the Defence of your Majesty's Person, and of your mild and virtuous Government, are so truly remarkable, and correspond so well with the Spirit of Loyalty and of generous Freedom, which has been roused throughout the British Empire, that we are humbly disposed to view that Spirit as a favourable Omen from the Lord of Hosts, who holds the Hearts of Men at his Disposal, and moves them, as the Rivers of Waters, for the great Ends of His Providence.

We cannot allow ourselves to be inactive Spectators of the present great National Contest. We will stand forward with our People in the common Cause, and make every Exertion in our Power to support your Majesty, as far as is consistent with our Character as Ministers of the Gospel.

When, as our common Father, you assemble your People to repel the Insults, and to punish the Ontrages of an unprincipled and desperate Enemy, it shall be our Prayer to Almighty God, that He may give such Energy and Success to your Majesty's Arms as may stand on Record to future Generations, and may lead to the Destruction of every Design hostile to the Cause of Righteousness, Truth, Liberty, and Peace over the Earth.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Presbytery at Lochmaben, Twentieth September One thousand eight hundred and three.

Wm. Singer, Moderator.

[Presented by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary
Torke.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishops and Clergy of the Scotch Episcopal Church.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AT A Period like the present, when every Part of the British Empire is threatened with Danger, more or less imminent according to its local Situation, and other Circumstances, which may serve to provoke the Avarice or Ambition of a rapacious, proud, and insatiable Enemy, we, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishops and Clergy of the Scotch Episcopal Church, consider ourselves bound to request your Royal Permission to approach the Throne, with those renewed Assurances of the most inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government, which so well become our Character as Christian Pastors, and are no less conducive to our Honor and Interest as British Subjects.

Although we cannot fail to be duly sensible how much it accords with our Profession as Ministers of the Gospel of Peace, to study the Things that tend to secure this invaluable Blessing, yet, when it can no longer be preserved, but by a Surrender of our Privileges, as an independent Nation, and a most debating Submission to the repeated Encroachments of that hostile Power, whose Progress has been every where marked with Devastation and Misery: in these Circumstances we cannot but applaud the Wisdom, and admire the Energy, which have been so powerfully exerted, in resisting such unprovoked Aggression, and defending all that is truly dear and valuable in this World.

Impressed with these Sentiments, respecting the awful Contest, in which our Country is engaged, we humbly beg Leave to express our warmest Approbation of the Loyalty, Zeal, and Public Spirit, which are now so eminently conspicuous in all Parts of your Majesty's Dominions, and our earnest and ardent Wishes to promote such laudable Exertions for the general Safety, by inspiring the Minds of those who adhere to our Ministry with the most conscientious Regard for your Majesty's sacred Authority, founded on those venerable Principles of our holy Religion, which afford the only Ground for public Virtue and national Happiness.

That the high and mighty Being, who is King of Kings, and Lord of Lords, the only Ruler, and therefore the surest Guard of Princes, may continue to take our beloved Sovereign under his gracious Care and Protection; may so direct the Councils, and strengthen the Hands of Government, as to enable your Majesty to vanquish and overcome all your Enemies. As it is the Voice of our public Supplications to the Throne of Heaven, so shall it ever be the private, unfeigned Wish and Prayer of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful and obedient Subjects, the Bishops and Clergy of the Scotch Episcopal Church

Signed by us the Bishops, for ourselves, and in Name of the Clergy of our respective Districts, Aberdeen, September 19, 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary
Torke.]

OFFICE of the COMMISSIONERS appointed by Act of Parliament under the Convention with the United States of America.

THE Board having considered the Petitions of sundry Persons who did not claim under the Sixth Article of the Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation with the United States of America, and having, on the Application of some of those Petitioners, heard Counsel in their Behalf,

RESOLVED,

That the Convention with the said United States,

dated the 8th Day of January 1802, by which the said Sixth Article of the Treaty of Amity was declared to be cancelled and annulled, came in place of the said Sixth Article, and was concluded on the Part of His Majesty for the Benefit of those Persons within the Description of the said Sixth Article, whose Claims might have been made good under the same; the Amount of the Sum agreed by the said Convention to be paid by the United States having been settled, with a View to the known Amount of such Claims, and the Proceedings which had taken place thereupon in America, under the Commission authorized by the said Sixth Article, and accepted of by His Majesty, "in Satisfaction and Discharge of the Money which the United States might have been liable to pay, in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Sixth Article;" that the said United States could not, in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Sixth Article, have been made liable to pay to Persons who had never claimed under the same; so that if Claims were received and held good under the Convention in Behalf of Persons, who, notwithstanding the regular and uninterrupted Sitzings, at Philadelphia, of the Commissioners under the said Sixth Article, during the whole Course of the Terms of Eighteen Months and Six Months, thereby prescribed for the Reception of Claims, and the public Notices thereof repeatedly given in the Manner set forth in the said Order of this Board of the 9th Day of May last, had never claimed under the said Article, such Persons would, in consequence of the subsequent Interruption of the Proceedings under the said Article, derive a Benefit which they never could have received from the full and complete Execution thereof, to the Prejudice of those who had duly observed and complied with the Terms and Conditions of the same, and whose Claims formed the Charge on which the said Convention was concluded as beforementioned,—that therefore no Claim for any Share of the Money to be distributed by this Board, under the said Convention, can be received, which was not preferred under the said Sixth Article of the Treaty of Amity.

THO. MACDONALD.

LIEUTENANT CARR, of His Majesty's Schooner L'Eclair, has stated to me, off Dominica, he chased Two Row-Boat Privateers, belonging to Guadeloupe, until she was becalmed, one of which the Government Sloop of the Island captured; the other was followed by L'Eclair's Jolly-Boat, with only Six Persons on board, including the Master and a young Midshipman, who attacked her in a very gallant Manner, notwithstanding he had Sixteen stout Men, well armed, and carried her in a few Minutes, after killing her Commander and One Man, and wounding Three, without any Loss on the Part of the Jolly-Boat.

THIS is to give Notice, that Application is intended to be made in the next Session of Parliament, for an Act to unite and to incorporate with the Glamorganhire Canal Navigation, a certain Tram Road or Rail Road, commencing at a Place called Cattle Morlais, in the Parish of Merthyr Tydvill, in the County of Glamorgan, and terminating at a Place called Craig Evan Leylen, adjoining the said Canal, in the Parish of Llanvabon, in the said County; and for constituting the Proprietors of the said Canal, and the Proprietors of the said Tram Road or Rail Road into one united Company, and to enable such united Company to impose, receive, and recover certain Tolls or Rates for using, passing, and repassing upon the said Tram Road or Rail Road, and which said Tram Road or Rail Road, passes through certain Parts of the said Parishes of Merthyr Tydvill and Llanvabon, in the said County of Glamorgan; and also to alter and amend an Act passed in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a navigable Canal from Merthyr Tydvill to and through a Place called the Bank, near the Town of Cardiff, in the County of Glamorgan;" and an Act passed in the Thirty-sixth Year of His said Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the Thirtieth Year of His present Majesty for making and maintaining a navigable Canal from Merthyr Tydvill to and through a Place called the Bank, near the Town of Cardiff, in the County of Glamorgan, and for extending the said Canal to a Place called Lower Layer, below the said Town."

Cope of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. E. Admiral of the Blue, Esq. to Sir Isaac Nepean, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship the Monarch, in Dover Roads, the 5th Instant.

SIR,

HEREWITH transmit, for their Lordships' Information, a Letter and its Inclosure, which I have received from Captain Broughton, of His Majesty's Ship the Penelope, acquainting me that Captain Griffiths, of the Constance, has captured the Caroline French Privateer of Eight Guns and Thirty-five Men; and that another which had struck her Colours to him, but of which he was unable to take Possession, on account of the unfavourable State of the Weather, has escaped into the River Elbe.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

KEITH.

Penelope, off the Elbe and Weser,

September 26, 1803.

MY LORD, I HAVE the Honor to enclose your Lordship a Letter from Captain Griffiths, of His Majesty's Ship Constance, giving an Account of his having captured a French Privateer, and materially damaged another which had struck her Colours, but afterwards escaped to Cuxhaven, in the River Elbe.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. R. BROUGHTON.

The Right Honorable Admiral Lord Keith, K. B.

&c. &c. &c.

His Majesty's Ship Constance, moored

in the Elbe, September 22, 1803.

THE Two French Privateers which were fitting out up the Elbe at Harbrough in Hanover, viz. La Caroline, of Eight Guns, and Thirty-five Men, and La Sophie, of Ten Guns and Forty Men, both Schooners, I received Intelligence on the 18th had come down to Cuxhaven Two Days before, but as I found they were inside the Jettys, I could do nothing with them: on the 20th they came out with a fair Wind, and a View, I believe, of trying the Vessels, exercising the People, and escaping by the North Elbe should Chance betwixt them. I dispatched all the Boats after them under Lieutenant Napier, but there was too much Wind and Sea, in such a Tide's Way, to admit their attacking them. They appear, however, to have succeeded in causing them to separate, the Caroline bearing her Wind for Cuxhaven, La Sophie bearing up for the North Elbe: the latter run on Shore on the South Part of the Vogel Sand, when the other bore up to prevent the Boats destroying her. Next Morning I got under weigh, and succeeded in cutting off the Caroline from Cuxhaven, whom I captured about Two Miles from that Place. The Wind increasing, on sending to anchor near the one on Shore, she struck her Colours also, and the Boats attempted to take the People out, but the heavy Sea on the Sand rendered it impossible—during the Night the Wind chopped round to N. W. and blew very hard: It brought so high a Tide, that at Three in the Morning she got off with the Loss, I believe, of her Rudder, and I should imagine otherwise a good Deal damaged, however she reached Cuxhaven I think.

I am, &c. A. J. GRIFFITHS

Captain Broughton, His Majesty's Ship Penelope.

St. James's, October 12, 1803.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of Kilmarnock.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's ever faithful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of Kilmarnock, again entreat to approach your Majesty at this momentous Crisis, with reiterated Assurances of the warmest Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

Convinced that your Majesty did every Thing which was proper to avert a Renewal of the War, we shall cheerfully submit to those Privations which may be requisite for carrying it on with Vigour and Effect. And attributing the Cause and Consequences of the War to that wild and unbounded Ambition which actuates our unprincipled Foe, and to his Hatred to a Nation which has been his only Check; we shall contemplate with cool but indignant Feelings his Threats of Invasion, and be ready to assist, with all the Energies in our Power in chastising his Aggression.

That the Blessing of the Almighty may continue to attend our Sovereign's Councils and Arms, and he and his People be brought out of the present Contest with Honor and Glory, is our sincere and ardent Prayer.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of Council, by William Gregory, J. Greenbields.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Torke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Tipperary.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Tipperary, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of the most unshaken Loyalty and Attachment to your Royal Person and illustrious Family. Satisfied with the Wisdom of our Ancestors, who framed that unparalleled Constitution under which we enjoy every Blessing, and being determined to hand down the same unimpaired to our Posterity so far as in us lie, we have unanimously resolved to lay aside all Dis-unctions, and at this Time of great Emergency unite in one Body to defend your Majesty's Crown, our revered Constitution, and those Rights and Relations which have ever been held dear by all Nations. Though fully aware of the Magnitude of the Contest, yet, undaunted by the Menaces of our ambitious and perfidious Foe, we shrink not from it, being unanimously determined to conquer and live in our free Land, or die gloriously in opposing the oppressive Yoke of foreign Slavery.

Thomas Coing, High-Sheriff, for Self and County.

*[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary
Perce.]*

THIS is to give Notice, that Application is intended to be made in the next Session of Parliament, for an Act to unite and to incorporate with the Glamorganshire Canal Navigation, a certain Tram Road or Rail Road, commencing at a Place called Castle Morlais, in the Parish of Merthyr Tydvill, in the County of Glamorgan, and terminating at a Place called Craig Evan Leyson, adjoining the said Canal, in the Parish of Llanvaben, in the said County; and for constituting the Proprietors of the said Canal, and the Proprietors of the said Tram Road or Rail Road into one united Company, and to enable such united Company to impose, receive, and recover certain Tolls or Rates for using, passing, and repassing upon the said Tram Road or Rail Road, and which said Tram Road or Rail Road, passes through certain Parts of the said Parishes of Merthyr Tydvill and Llanvabon, in the said County of Glamorgan; and also to alter and amend an Act passed in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a navigable Canal from Merthyr Tydvill to and through a Place called the Bank, near the Town of Cardiff, in the County of Glamorgan;" and an Act passed in the Thirty-sixth Year of His said Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the Thirtieth Year of His present Majesty for making and maintaining a navigable Canal from Merthyr Tydvill to and through a Place called the Bank, near the Town of Cardiff, in the County of Glamorgan, and for extending the said Canal to a Place called Lower Layer, below the said Town."

 at Newfoundland, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board the Isis, at St. John's, the 20th August 1803.*

SIR,

I SEND herewith an Extract of a Letter from Captain Malbon, of His Majesty's Ship Aurora, giving an Account of his having taken Possession of the Islands of St. Pierre and Miquelon, which you will be pleased to lay before the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

J. GAMBIER.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Malbon, commanding His Majesty's Ship Aurora, to Vice-Admiral Gambier, Commander in Chief at Newfoundland, &c.

ON the 30th June, about Four o'Clock in the Morning, I made the Island of Peters;
 and at Five sent the large Cutter and Launch,
 manned and armed with a Twelve Pound Carronade, under the Command of Lieutenant Richard Longfield Davies, and Lieutenant Baillie, of the Marines, to oblige the Town to surrender, or begin the Attack; between Six and Seven o'Clock they entered the Harbour, under a very thick Fog, and perceiv-ing a Boat crossing from one Side to the other,
 brought her to, in which they found the Commissary, who acted as Governor. The Confusion that the Place was thrown into from the sudden Attack prevented the Inhabitants from assembling together, and at half-past Seven the Commissary surrendered
 the Island, by delivering the Colours to Lieutenant Davies. From what has been since learned there is no Doubt, that, if the Inhabitants could have had Time to have collected themselves from their different Situations, they would have made a strong Resistance, having since discovered upwards of One Hundred Stand of Arms among them. Knowing the small Force in the Boats, I used my utmost Efforts to get His Majesty's Ship into the Harbour, but was as frequently prevented by thick Fogs. About Eleven, it being somewhat clear, I entered under a very heavy Press of Sail between the Rocks, which were not a Cable's Length across, and at Two P. M. brought to with the best Bower in Fifteen Fathom Water. Found here a French Merchant Brig (Le Reines des Anges) and a Schooner (Le Provoyier), with Eleven small Schooners, and upwards of One Hundred Battoes. The Island contained Fish, Stores, Salt, and Merchandize of various Descriptions, and, upon a rough Survey, about Two Hundred and Twenty Men were upon the Island and in the Boats; but they being so detached several got away in the small Craft, One of which, I have since been informed, was taken off Liverpool in Nova Scotia, and another at St. Lawrence, in Newfoundland.

On every Thing being secured, I ordered One of the Fishing Schooners to be fitted as a Tender, and having her manned and armed with a Twelve-Pound Carronade, gave the Command to Lieutenant Davies, with Directions to scour the Coast, and take Possession of the Islands of Great and Little Miquelon, which he did, but no Inhabitants or Stores were found at either of those Places.

J. GAMBIER.

Extract of a Letter from Admiral Sir John Coissey, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships at Plymouth, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board the Sloop del Mundo, Hamoaze, 18th October 1803.

I ACQUAINT you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that L'Aventure, French Privateer of Twenty Guns, and One Hundred and Fifty Men, captured by the Acaffa, is just arrived. The Prize-Master reports that the Acaffa had also retaken the Ship Royal Edward of London, and the Saint Mary's Planter of Liverpool, both from Jamaica, whose late Commanders are arrived in L'Aventure.

Admiralty-Office, October 20, 1803.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Wolfe, of His Majesty's Ship L'Agile, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated Downs, October 18, 1803.

I HAVE to beg you will acquaint my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that, on the 27th Ult. being off Vigo, I captured, after several Hours' Chase, L'Alerte French Brig Privateer, of Fourteen Guns, French Six and Four Pounds, and Eighty-four Men, commanded by Bernard Benjamin Bezard, on her Return from a Cruise, having been Sixty-five Days from Bourdeaux. Her Masts, Sails, and Rigging are much torn by our Shot, and the Man at the Helm (the only Man suffered on Deck) dangerously wounded. I have sent Fire wounded Prisoners on Shore, to the Care of the French Consul at Oporto.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Forty-third Year of Our Reign, intituled "An Act to repeal an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament for establishing Regulations respecting Aliens arriving in this Kingdom, or resident therein; and for establishing, until Three Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, Regulations respecting Aliens arriving in this Kingdom, or residing therein, in certain Cases;" We are authorized by Our Royal Proclamation, from Time to Time, to require and command every Alien who now is in, or who shall hereafter come into, Great Britain, except as therein excepted, to register himself or herself, and thereupon to obtain Our Royal Licence to reside within this Kingdom, as therein mentioned: Now We, being desirous of carrying into Execution the Purposes of the said Act, do, by this Our Proclamation, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, require and command every Alien who shall be in this Kingdom on the Day of the Date of this Our Proclamation, except as hereinafter excepted, to register himself or herself, in the Manner hereinafter-mentioned; that is to say,

And all Aliens residing in other Places in Great Britain shall, within Eighteen Days from the Publication of this Our Proclamation in the London Gazette, so register themselves with some Magistrate of the County or Place where such Aliens respectively shall reside.

St. James's, October 20, 1803.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen, Heritors, Freeholders, Juilices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, Clergy, and Gentlemen of the County of Banff, assembled, impressed with a Sense of the present important Crisis, presume to approach the Throne with our unanimous Assurance of Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

The Contest in which the Nation is involved we consider as just as it is necessary, and now humbly beg Leave to come forward with an Offer of our Lives and Properties for the Safety of our Majesty's Person, and the Honor and Independence of the Crown.

We behold with Horror the Cruelties and Injustice exercised by the Military Despot of France over other Countries. We contemplate with Indignation and Contempt, his Menaces against our own. But we view with Admiration the Zeal and Determination manifested by all the Subjects of your Majesty's Dominions, as a System with the Assistance of Almighty God, the most certain to overwhelm the Devices, and check the Plans of an Usurper who aspires to universal Rule through the Subversion of our Civil and Religious Privileges, who hopes to complete his Views of Aggrandizement by the Annihilation of that glorious Constitution, which is the Envy of surrounding Nations.

Whilst we reprobate the ambitious Designs of our Enemy, we trust that, with the Assistance of Almighty God, the wise Counsels of your Majesty's Government, and the vigorous Exertions of your Navy and Army, these Designs will be frustrated, and the Blessings of Peace restored. And pray that your Majesty may long reign over your free and happy People.

Signed at Banff, the Thirtieth Day of September, Eighteen Hundred and three Years, in Name and by Appointment of the Meeting, Huntly, Ps.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr Secretary York.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen, in Synod assembled, deeply impressed with a Sense of the many Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, beg Leave, at a Crisis when a foreign Enemy, the Slaves of an ambitious Despot, threaten the Subversion of the religious and civil Establishment of your United Kingdom, to approach the Throne with an Expression of that Zeal for the Support of your Majesty's Government, which we feel as Britons, and with that Gratitude for your Majesty's paternal Indulgence and Benignity, by which we are actuated as Members of the Church of Scotland. Solicitous, as we have been, to impress upon the People committed to our Charge the Duties which we owe to our God, our King, and our Country, we cannot contemplate without Indignation the projected Invasion of your Kingdom by a Nation who wish to spread over this happy Land the Miseries which they have introduced into their own. We have encouraged our People to place their Confidence in the Lord of Hosts, and to make the most zealous and active Efforts for the Defence of our common Country, and of our beloved Sovereign, and for the Maintenance of that glorious Constitution under which we have the Happiness to live.

We congratulate your Majesty on the Unanimity which, by the Blessing of God, prevails among all Ranks and Orders of your Majesty's Subjects, on the just Sense entertained of those Privileges which we enjoy, as well as of the Danger with which they are threatened, and on the patriotic and zealous Preparations in which all combine for repelling it.

May the Almighty Governor of the World avert the Dangers that threaten these Lands; defeat all the Designs of your Majesty's and our Enemies; continue that Protection and Election which your Majesty has so frequently experienced; and to transmit to the latest Posterity our invaluable Rights and Privileges, both civil and religious.

These are the sincere and fervent Prayers of, Most Gracious Sovereign, the Ministers and Elders of the Synod of Aberdeen.

Signed in Name and Presence and by Appointment of the Synod of Aberdeen, the Twelfth Day of October, One thousand eight hundred and three, by

J. Harper, Moderator.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Sir. Secretary York.]

GENERAL ORDERS.

Horse Guards, October 29, 1803.

HIS Royal Highness the Commander in Chief has received the King's Command to convey to the several Volunteer and Associated Corps which were reviewed in Hyde Park on the 26th and 28th Inst. His Majesty's highest Approbation of their Appearance, which has equalled His Majesty's utmost Expectation.

His Majesty perceives, with heartfelt Satisfaction, that the Spirit of Loyalty and Patriotism, on which the System of the Armed Volunteers throughout the Kingdom was originally founded, has risen with the Exigencies of the Times, and at this Moment forms such a Bulwark to the Constitution and Liberties of the Country, as will enable us, under the Protection of Providence, to bid Defiance to the unprovoked Malice of our Enemies, and to hurl back with becoming Indignation, the Threats which they have presumed to vent against our Independence, and even our Existence as a Nation.

His Majesty has observed with peculiar Pleasure that, amongst the unprecedented Exertions which the present Circumstances of the Country have called forth, those of the Capital of His United Kingdom have been eminently conspicuous; the Appearance of its numerous and well-regulated Volunteer Corps, which were reviewed on the 26th and 28th Inst. indicates a Degree of Attention and Emulation, both in Officers and Men, which can proceed only from a deep Sense of the important Objects for which they have enrolled themselves, a just Estimation of the Blessings We have so long enjoyed, and a firm and manly Determination to defend them like Britons, and transmit them unimpaired to our Posterity.

The Commander in Chief has the highest Satisfaction in discharging his Duty, by communicating these His Majesty's most gracious Sentiments, and requests that the Commanding Officers will have Recourse to the readiest Means of making the same known to their respective Corps.

FREDERICK, Commander in Chief.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Information hath been received that an Infectious Dilemper is now raging in the City of New York, in the State of New York, within the United States of America: And whereas by an Act passed in the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for erecting a Lazaret on Chetney Hill, in the County of Kent, and for reducing into one Act the Laws relating to Quarantine, and for making further Provision therein:" It is among other Things enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, by His Royal Proclamation, from Time to Time, to declare any Infectious Dilemper, the Communication whereof may be highly dangerous to the Health of His Majesty's Subjects, to be of the Nature of the Plague.

His Majesty, in pursuance of the said Power, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, deems it expedient to declare, and doth hereby declare, that the said Infectious Dilemper is of the Nature of the Plague:

And His Majesty doth therefore hereby order, that all Ships, Vessels, Persons, Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes now arrived, or which may hereafter arrive in any of the Ports of Great Britain, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man from New York, or any Port within the State of New York, and shall have cleared out from New York, or any Port within the State of New York, subsequent to the Fifteenth Day of August last, (not having any Person or Persons on board the same actually ill of the said Fever,) do perform a Quarantine of Fourteen Days at the several Places appointed, and according to the Rules prescribed by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twenty-ninth of July One thousand eight hundred, for Performance of Quarantine by all Ships and Vessels coming from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, and arriving with clean Bills of Health; but in case any of the Crew or Passengers on board any such Ship or Vessel which shall have cleared out from New York, or any Port within the State of New York subsequent to the said Fifteenth Day of August, and shall have arrived, or may hereafter arrive in any of the Ports of Great Britain, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man from New York, or any Port within the State of New York, shall have died of the said Fever during the Course of the Voyage, the Cloaths, and all personal Effects which are susceptible of Infection, worn by, or belonging to such Person, shall be forthwith burned, or sunk in deep Water; and if such Cloaths and Effects shall not be so burned or destroyed, the said Ship or Vessel, with the Whole of her Cargo, shall not be permitted to perform Quarantine at any Port or Place except at Standgate Creek, and shall be compelled to depart from any other Port or Place at which the same has arrived, or shall arrive as aforesaid, and shall repair to Standgate Creek, and there perform Quarantine, and not elsewhere: And His Majesty is further pleased to order, with the Advice aforesaid, and it is hereby ordered, that if it shall appear upon the Arrival of any Ship or Vessel from New York or any Port within the State of New York as aforesaid, that any of the Crew or Passengers belonging to the same are actually ill of the said Fever, then such Ship or Vessel, and the Persons, Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes on board the same, shall not be permitted to perform Quarantine at any Port or Place except Standgate Creek, and shall be compelled to depart from any other Port or Place, and to proceed immediately to Standgate Creek in order to perform Quarantine, and shall there perform Quarantine and not elsewhere: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General and the Rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the said Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B. Admiral of the Blue, &c. to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship the Monarch, off Broadstairs, the 30th of last Month.

SIR,

I Herewith transmit, for their Lordships' Information, a Copy of a Letter which I have received from Rear-Admiral Montagu, and of an Inclosure to which it refers, reporting the Destruction of a French Privateer, by His Majesty's Sloop the Merlin and the Millbrook Schooner.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

KEITH.

Utrecht, in the Downs, 29th October 1803.

MY LORD,
I Herewith I enclose a Letter from Captain Brenton, of His Majesty's Sloop Merlin, stating the Destruction of the French Lugger Privateer Les Sept Freres.

The Conduct of Lieutenant Thompson, and the People serving under him, merits Approbation; and Lieutenant De Starck, of the Millbrook, appears to have exemplified the Zeal and Energy which invariably attaches to his Character.

The Millbrook was struck several Times by Shot, but not damaged, and will proceed upon Service this Evening.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

ROBERT MONTAGU.

His Majesty's Sloop Merlin, off Dunkirk, October 28, 1803.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to inform you, that the Boats of His Majesty's Sloop Merlin, under my Command, Yesterday went in Pursuit of, and drove on Shore and totally destroyed the French Lugger Privateer Les Sept Freres, mounting Two Carriage Guns, besides small Arms, and manned with Thirty Men, commanded by the Citizen Pollet; the Boats of the Merlin were commanded by Lieutenant Henry Clement Thompson, who has lost an Arm in the Service of his King and Country during the late War; and to the judicious and seamanlike Conduct of Lieutenant Newton Starck, I am not only indebted for cutting off the Enemy's Retreat, &c. by, but not bringing all the Service on board in Barge, &c. the Service was performed.

The Barge went on Water about Half a Mile to the Westward of Greenwich, where Lieutenant Starck ordered the Masts of the Merchant Ship of War, &c. in the Evening a heavy rain descended upon them in the Ship with Fair Field Pieces, which, however, did no Sort of Damage, & I am happy to say, that on our Side not a Mast was hurt.

I have the Honour, Sir, that the Command of the Gun, & the Men employed on this Service will not without your Approbation.

I have the Honour to be, &c.
 (Signed) J. P. PRENTON

St. James's, November 2, 1803.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergymen, and Freeholders of the County of Kilkenny.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to address your Majesty in Terms of the sincerest Reverence and Affection; to assure your Majesty of our just Indignation at the recent Outrages which have disgraced our Country, and of our firm Determination to support, with our Lives and Fortunes, your Majesty's Royal Authority, and our present excellent Constitution, confiding in your Majesty's paternal Care, and in the Strength and Loyalty of your faithful Subjects. we bid Defiance to the Efforts of domestic Traitors or foreign Enemies, however desperate or implacable.

Ormonde and Offory.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary
York.]

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Merse and Tiviotalde, met at Kello, on the Twenty-fifth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and three, beg Leave to approach your Throne with renewed Assurances of our ardent Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We lament that your Majesty's earnest and persevering Endeavours to maintain the Peace of your Dominions have been rendered abortive by the insatiable Ambition and implacable Hatred of our Enemies. Reflecting with Grief and Horror on the Desolation and Misery which have marked the Progress of their Armies now concentrated for our Destruction, we consider the present Period the most interesting and awful that has occurred in the Annals of Britain.

Impressed with a Sense of the unrivalled Excellence of our Constitution, confirmed by the pre-eminent and increasing Prosperity of the People, we feel ourselves impelled by every Motive of Piety and Patriotism, to devote our best Services to its Defence. Encouraged by signal Interpositions of Divine Providence in our Behalf during the late War, and the decided Justice and unavoidable Necessity of that in which we are now engaged, we put our Trust in the God of Battles, the Lord mighty to save, that under his Guidance and Blessing, the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, the Unanimity of your People, and the Valour of your Fleets and Armies will speedily vindicate the Honor, and secure the Independence and Peace of the British Empire.

Deeply interested in the Happiness of Mankind, we indulge the pleasing Hope, that the brave Exertions of a free People may be instrumental in breaking the Yoke of oppressed Nations, and overturning that Accumulation of Wickedness and Power which has been so fatal to the Interests of Freedom and Humanity.

Under these Impressions we solemnly engage to exert our personal and professional Influence to cherish and confirm in the Minds of our People, the Sentiments which we have now expressed, and to animate them to Efforts of Activity, Zeal, and Courage adequate to the Magnitude of impending Danger.

That Order may rise out of Confusion, that all the Kingdoms of the Earth may be united under the Prince of Peace, and learn the Art of War no more, and that your Majesty's Government and Example may contribute to these desirable Events, is the earnest Prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Merse and Tiviotalde.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and by our Appointment, by Henry Garnock, Moderator.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary
York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's very dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of your ancient Royal Burgh of Fortrose, thus beg Leave to approach the Throne in the present momentous Crisis of public Affairs.

The Danger with which our Country is threatened, by the Invasion of a restless and insidious Foe, together with the deplorable Examples exhibited to us on the Continent of Europe, serve but to increase and cement our uniform devoted Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government; we therefore, in the most solemn Manner, pledge ourselves, in Name of ourselves, and of those over whom we preside, to sacrifice our Lives and Properties in Defence of our King, and of our civil and religious Rights.

Firmly determined to transmit pure and unimpaired to Posterity those invaluable Blessings, we now to eminently possess under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, under the Favour and Providence of God, and by the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils, guiding and directing a free, loyal, and united People, we will, with a steadfast Courage, commensurate to the great Cause in which we are engaged, repel every hostile Attempt.

Ever may your Majesty and your illustrious House wield the Sceptre of these Realms, thereby ensuring to an enlightened and grateful People the due Administration of just and equal Laws, the Criterion of our unparalleled Constitution, that proud Boast of Britons.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment,
by George Gun Munro, Esq; of Poyntsfild, our Provost. Geo. Gun Munro, Provost.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 9th Day of November, 1803,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty having been graciously pleased to deliver the Custody of the Seals of the Duchy and County-Palatine of Lancaster to the Right Honorable Thomas Lord Pelham, the Oath of Chancellor of the said Duchy was this Day, by His Majesty's Command, administered to his Lordship.

Admiralty-Office, November 12, 1803.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Sir J. T. Duckworth, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica, to Sir Ewan Nepean, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Belcherophon, at Sea, 13th August 1803.

ON the 5th Instant, between Cape Nicola Mole and Cape François, I fell in with the Elephant, when Captain Dundas informed me, that the Two Line of Battle Ships, with the Frigate Guerrier, had got out of the Cape in a very violent Squall late in the Afternoon of the 24th, and that the Duquesne of Seventy-four Guns, had been captured in the Afternoon of the 25th, but the Duguay Trouen, from Superiority of sailing, had escaped, although the Elephant had commenced an Action within point-blank Shot; but for the Particulars of these Transactions, I beg to refer their Lordships to the Letter of Captain Loring, and I trust their Lordships will view the Ardor and Zeal of that Officer and his Squadron as meriting their Praise, though unfortunately the Darkness of the Evening, when the Duguay Trouen hauled her Wind, prevented the Elephant from being seconded by the Thefeus in Time to be useful.

I am, &c.

J. T. DUCKWORTH.

*Belcherophon, off Cape Maize,
July 26, 1803.*

SIR,

IN pursuance of your Orders relative to the Blockade of Cape François with the Squadron under my Command, in the Performance of which, I trust, my Endeavours may not be found deficient, I beg Leave to inform you, that on Sunday the 24th Ultimo, at Six P. M., being off that Port, a heavy Squall came on from the Land, which induced the Two Line-of-Battle Ships to attempt an Escape: The Weather soon moderating they were immediately discovered, and the Signal for a general Chase was made. On their clearing the Harbour they hauled to the Westward to take Advantage of the Land Wind; every Effort possible was made to keep Sight of them during the Night, which was effected principally by the Vigilance of Captains Evans and Perkins of the Æolus and Tartar. At Half-past Nine o'Clock I was informed by an Officer from the Elephant, who had been on board the Tartar, that One of the Ships had tacked to the Eastward, and the other steering to the Westward, close along Shore; in consequence of which, I directed Captain Dundas to tack, and endeavour to cut off the former, the Elephant being the weather-moist Ship, and pursued the other with the Two Frigates; the Thefeus and Vanguard being to Lee-ward in the first of the Squall, did not join me till about Twelve o'Clock at Night; at Daylight we were within Gun Shot of the Chase. On hearing a heavy Cannonading to the Eastward, I made the Thefeus Signal to chase East, having been unfortunately unable to make a similar Disposition during the Night; and at Half-past Three P. M. on the 25th, we came up with, and after exchanging several Bow and Stern Chasers with the Vanguard and Tartar, who were the headmost Ships, she struck her Colours, and proves to be the Duquesne, of Seventy-four Guns, commanded by Monsieur Ker-rangel, Capitaine de Vaisseau, from Cape François bound to Europe. I am sorry to say one Man was killed, and another wounded on board the Vanguard; none on board the Enemy's Ships.

In passing between the Two Islands of St. Domingo and Tortudo, near Port-au-Paix, we took the French National Schooner Oiseau of Sixteen Guns and Sixty Men, commanded by Monsieur Drouault, Lieutenant de Vaisseau, which I have ordered, with the Duquesne, to Port Royal, under Charge of the Vanguard and Tartar.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JOHN LORING

*Rear-Admiral Sir J. T. Duckworth, K. B.
&c. &c. &c.*

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated Toulon, 27th September 1803.

SIR,

I HEREWITH transmit you Copy of a Letter from Captain Richardson, of His Majesty's Ship Juno, giving an Account of the Capture of the French Bombarde Privateer Les Quatre Fils of Nice, which you will please to lay before the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty for their Information.

I am, Sir, &c.

(Signed) NELSON & BRONTE.

His Majesty's Ship Juno, Valet, September 11, 1803.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the Honor to inform you, that, on the 8th Instant, Cape Spartivento bearing N. E. by E. distant Eight Leagues, the Juno captured the French Bombarde Privateer Les Quatre Fils of Nice, armed with Four Guns (Twelve and Nine-Pounders), and manned with Seventy-eight Men.

I am, &c.

H. RICHARDSON.

The Right Honorable Lord Viscount Nelson, K. B. Vice-Admiral of the Blue, &c. &c. &c.

Copy of another Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated Toulon, at Sea, 1st October 1803.

SIR,

YOU will herewith receive Copy of a Letter from Captain Corbet, of His Majesty's Sloop Bittern, giving an Account of the Capture of La Caille French Schooner Privateer, which you will please to lay before the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, for their Information.

I am, Sir, &c.

(Signed) NELSON and BRONTE.

MY LORD,

ON the 10th Instant, His Majesty's Sloop under my Command, captured (after several Hours' Chace, West, from Cape Sparte,) La Caille a French Schooner Privateer, pierced for Fourteen Guns, but had only Six Six-Pounders on board, and a Complement of Sixty Men.

La Caille is an exceeding handsome Vessel, quite new, and coppered, fitted out from Marseilles, and intended to full arm at Cadiz—she was the best of Nine, that have infested the Straights, and that I had frequently chased.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

ROB. CORBET.

Right Hon. Lord Viscount Nelson, K. B. &c. &c. &c.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Page, of His Majesty's Ship the Caroline, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated at Sea, the 2d August 1803.

SIR,

PLEASE to inform my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that we this Day fell in with and sent to St. Helena, for England, the Dutch States Brig De Haasje, Captain-Lieutenant J. Yfbrands, Commander, of Six Guns and Thirty-three Men, from the Cape of Good Hope Thirty Hours, with Dispatches for Batavia, which he threw over-board, having obliged us to fire at him before he would let our Boats on board; she mounted Eighteen Twelve-Pounder Carronades, but was compelled to leave them at the Cape.

I am, &c.
